For example:

Dear Mrs. Longoria,

I hope you are having a great Summer! I just read the best book called Matilda by Roald Dahl. Matilda is a young girl who lives in a family of shady characters. Her dad is a crooked car dealer and her mom only cares about playing BINGO! Matilda dreams of going to school, but her parents are so busy with their own lives that they ignore her and leave her at home to accept packages for the father. While at home, Matilda discovers she has magical powers and can control things with her mind.

Finally, Matilda convinces her parents to allow her to attend school. She is placed in a classroom with the kindest teacher, Mrs. Honey. A strong relationship develops with Mrs. Honey and together they overcome the evil power of the Head Mistress, Mrs. Trunchbull.

I loved this book! The characters were described so well I felt like I knew them. I could not put this book down. I look forward to seeing you soon!!

Sincerely,

Maree Longoria

As a parent- What should you be doing during this process?

Help, guide, and model writing for your child.*

Do not write for them but you can help with ideas and encourage your child to expand thoughts or correct their work.*

It is ok to correct their work- Underline words that are misspelled & help them to spell correctly.*

Read over the writing with your child. Have them read aloud to you. Ask them questions to help them add details so the reader has a picture in their head of what is happening.*
