

Richland Elementary School Librarians' Corner

Let's Get Offline!

Part I: Watch and Discuss

Read Aloud: “Potato Pants” By: Laurie Keller

(Read, recorded and shared with permission from: Henry Holt & Company, registered trademark of Macmillan Publishing Group, LLC. Copyright 2018)

1. Vocabulary: suspenders, ruin, ridiculous, mannequin, clever
2. Literary Devices/Techniques: Personification & Dialogue
3. Focus Questions: 1) Why was Potato afraid to enter the store? 2) What happened to Potato and Eggplant?

Video Read Aloud Link:

https://drive.google.com/file/d/1yf93i\_LTEP8lx\_1Tw7w73LTNolf42c8j/view?usp=sharing

Part II: Research

Research to find your favorite potato recipe online!

Here are some helpful links:

<https://cookingwithkids.org/>

<https://www.pbs.org/food/theme/cooking-with-kids/>

<https://www.thekitchn.com/disney-eats-is-basically-the-food-network-for-kids-258473>

*You can also use a top secret family recipe that you already have!

Part III: Create

1. Be an Iron Chef and get Cooking (with a grown-up)!
2. Enjoy your meal with your family (be sure to have a lot of great DIALOGUE)!
3. Help with clean-up and dishes! :)

Part IV: Extensions

1. Draw a picture of OR decorate a potato and design your own potato pants!
2. Find another recipe to cook as a family! Bon Appetit!

Send photographs or comments of your family participating in any part of this activity to your teacher and/or Ty Beaver: tyler.beaver@rsd.edu