

MALDEN CATHOLIC

The Codivisional High School

Welcome Home!

We are all looking forward to seeing you tomorrow! Based on our safety policies, we will be observing the following social distancing guidelines:

The clean-out schedule is based on English classes. This will break up the alphabet and limit the number of students allowed in the school at a given time. Please note that there are thirty minutes in between each session. This will allow time for our facilities crew to clean in between each visiting group. Students will only be allowed in the building at the designated times listed below. No groups of any kind will be allowed to congregate on Malden Catholic property.
