KCPS School Board Invites Public to March 22 Ribbon-Cutting Event marks Board's move to new location in midtown Kansas City

Kansas City, March 20, 2017: The Kansas City Public Schools Board of Directors is ready to move into its new home.

The KCPS School Board members are hosting a ribbon-cutting ceremony starting 6:00 p.m. on Wednesday, March 22 in their new location at the BOE building, which is located at 2901 Troost Ave. in Kansas City, Mo. Members of the public and the news media are invited to attend.

The ceremony will celebrate the Board's official move from its previous location in downtown Kansas City to new headquarters that are up-to-date and more convenient for families and staff. The Board is scheduled to start its first regular business meeting in this new location following the event at 6:30 p.m.

KCPS Superintendent Mark Bedell and Board Chair Melissa Robinson will say a few words at the celebration, and the Border Star Montessori School choir will perform. Light refreshments will be served.
