MEDIA ADVISORY

Lincoln Prep and East High Compete for State Soccer Championships

Kansas City, Oct. 30, 2017: For the first time in school history, Lincoln College Preparatory Academy will head to the state soccer semi-finals for a chance to bring a home a Class 2 Missouri state title. Lincoln will face Bayless at 2:00 p.m. on Friday, Nov. 3 in St. Louis. Lincoln defeated St. Pius in a thrilling double overtime match 2-1 on Oct. 28 to advance.

East High School will begin their journey for a Class 3 Missouri state championship at 5:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Oct. 31 at Bryan Field. East will play Smithville in the first round of the state tournament. East will look to improve upon last year's success after advancing to the state quarterfinals in 2016.

This is the first time that Kansas City Public Schools has had two teams win district soccer championships in two separate classes.
