Good Sports Donation to Equip KCPS Kids for Success

More than $34,000-worth of athletic equipment to be given at 2:30 p.m. today

Kansas City, Nov. 8, 2018: The public charity Good Sports will be donating more than $34,000-worth of athletic equipment to Kansas City Public Schools from 2:30 to 3:15 p.m. today at Operation Breakthrough, which is located at 3039 Troost Ave. in Kansas City, Mo.

The donation is made possible thanks to a grant provided by Good Sports. The charity gives kids the benefit of sports and physical activity by providing apparel, equipment and footwear to those most in need. Learn more about the organization by visiting www.goodsports.org.

Superintendent Mark Bedell and Athletic Director James Sanders will be at Operation Breakthrough to take possession of the equipment on behalf of KCPS and to express their deep gratitude for the donation. The equipment will help KCPS as it continues to ensure equity in the athletic opportunities and experiences for all its students.
