

1. SOL high school results differentiated by high school.
Complete – data available at following website
<https://p1pe.doe.virginia.gov/reportcard/>
2. Why are 2010-2011 high school results down by 5% or more for Black and Hispanic subgroups?
Completed - data in folder
3. Number of study halls and number of students in each study hall at the HS level at each school for 2008-2009, 2009-2010, and 2010-2011.
Complete – data in folder
4. Current 1st semester enrollments in World Languages
Complete – data in folder: State of Division Report – Page 20
5. Enrollments in electives by school, both those electives within and outside core areas, e.g. psychology, philosophy, statistics, etc. as well as CTE, Health/PE, Fine and Performing Arts, etc. with data spanning the two years before 8-period day and the two years into the 8 period day.
Complete – courses are listed in folder – data will be provided January 12
6. The schools that do not have kilns and projected costs to reach universal access – elementary as well, can this be covered in CIP.
Data will be provided January 12
7. Frequency distribution of AP enrollments across grade levels by teacher.
Data will be provided January 12
8. Staffing needs and concomitant costs for 5/8 vs. 6/8 staffing at the secondary level (6-12) with no increase in class size over the current class size parameters.
Complete – data in folder
9. The effect on class size if secondary (6-12) schools were organized around 5/8 staffing with no change in current FTE staffing allotments at the secondary level.
Complete – data in folder
10. Equity between high school and other levels.
Complete – data in folder

11. Bus Replacement cycle
(Board will request data at later time)
12. High school staffing
(Board will request data at later time)
13. Number of students per teacher per high school for the following school years: 2008-2009, 2009-2010, and 2010-2011.
Data will be provided January 12
14. Pass rates for World Languages from 2008-2009, 2009-2010, and 2010-2011.
Complete – data in folder
15. List of elective offerings for each high school for the following years: 2008-2009, 2009-2010, 2010-2011.
Complete – data available in Program of Studies that are on the Department of Instruction website at the following location
<http://schoolcenter.k12albemarle.org/education/school/school.php?sectionid=8507>
16. Acceptance counts by each college and university at each high school for the following school years: 2008-2009, 2009-2010, and 2010-2011.
Complete – data in folder
17. Dual enrollment CTE courses offerings by each high school
Complete – data in folder
18. Counts of student who are in 8 Honors/AP/Dual Enrollment courses.
Complete – data in folder
19. Budget preparation, Table 2, show three separate years of data.
Work in progress
20. Implication of expanding world languages
Data will be provided January 12
21. Do we differentiate funding for LEP by Level 1 and Level 2? If not would this be an area for savings?
Data will be provided January 12