

Do Something that Matters with your Online Education Degree

at the University of West Alabama

Advance your career in the classroom and beyond with an online education degree from the University of West Alabama. We offer more than 40 certification and non-certification options designed to prepare educators like you for rewarding careers. Gain valuable skills and hands-on experience to help your students learn, grow and reach their potential as you study at one of the state's oldest, most prestigious universities. We offer more education programs than any other Alabama institution, and the only doctorate in rural education in the country. With UWA, you'll experience an education that helps you achieve your goals on your schedule.

WHY CHOOSE UWA?

Affordability

At UWA, we provide our students with competitive tuition, a complimentary transfer evaluation and free online application. We also offer the Teacher Connect Scholarship for certification programs, which awards up to $100 per credit hour to teachers from partnering school systems.

Flexibility

Education programs at UWA are delivered in an online format that allows you to earn your degree on your schedule. With rolling admissions, eight-week courses and six start dates per year, our programs are designed with working teachers in mind. Our generous transfer policy allows for up to 90 transfer credits in our undergraduate programs, and nine for all graduate degrees.

Academic Excellence

Our programs are taught by expert faculty with years of education experience. Because they are accredited by the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP), you can be confident that a degree from UWA will prepare you for continued success.

Personal Attention

We offer a personalized enrollment process and ongoing advising throughout the course of your program. You'll benefit from one-on-one support to help you reach your academic and professional goals.
