Process. Review of the ground rules. (15 min)

Purpose. Review committee description (see attached document) (10 min)

3. Nominate Committee Chair and Vice Chair (2:40 – 2:50)

4. Task to Address (2:50 – 3:50)

Facilitators: Mary Sinclair/Brad Stratton (5-10 min), Russ Knapp (60 min, including time for committee feedback)

Task Defined: Facilitating a shared understanding of district finances within and across the SMSD community.

- School finances are complex and technical, making them difficult to communicate effectively to the public.
- Budget planning and decisions are challenged by mid-year and year-end changes to projected revenues, changes in enrollment and special needs populations, and restrictions on uses of some funds.
- Fiscal responsibility includes the capacity to sustain program funding year-over-year, for both operational and capital needs.
- Kansas law requires school districts to develop and approve an annual budget by a specific set of dates, that begins each fiscal year in May and concludes in August.

Activity: Mr. Knapp will walk the committee through key components of a school finance, districts budget development timeline, and state statute timeline.

Committee Task for the Meeting: Identify common questions and misunderstandings within SMSD community regarding the district budget and/or K12 public school finance. These can be your questions or those you've heard from the broader community.

5. Next meeting (3:50 – 4:00)

Facilitator: Brad Stratton

April 28, 2:00 – 4:00 pm.

Working Agenda: District Budget Development and Overview of Facility Projects for Potential Bond Issues
