The Great Reading Race

Grades 1, 2 & 3

Who can participate?

All students entering 1st -3rd Grade

How does my child participate?

1. Read, read, read!
2. Record your reading on the “Record Forms.”
3. Fill out “My Summer Reading Totals.”
4. Please staple all of your completed forms together with the “My Summer Reading Totals” on top. (Forms that should be included are “My Summer Reading Totals”, “General” Books Record forms, & “Bible” Record forms).
5. Turn in your completed forms to your teacher no later than August 14, 2020.

Why should my child participate?

1. Did you know, research shows that . . . the more you read, the better reader you will become, reading increases your vocabulary, helps prevent learning loss over the summer, improves listening skills . . . and much, much more!
2. There are great prizes . . . Medals, chocolate bars, and a few surprises for the top readers in each grade!!

What books can my child read?

Students can read anything! Just keep in mind that students must read Bible pages in addition to the General books in order to earn a medal.

* Bible pages include . . . reading from the Bible, Daily Devotions, Children’s Bibles and Bible Stories.

10 Bible verses are equal to 1 page

* General books include . . . magazines, family read-alouds, non-fiction (folktales, tall tales, fables, fairy tales, books on animals, science, art, music, sports, hobbies, etc.), poetry, jokes, fiction, history, and biography.

Where can I find extra forms?

You can find extra forms on Renweb under Resource Documents and on the school website under the Family Section.
