Gr. 11 English III AP Questions? Contact Ms. Hsiao at min.hsiao@springbranchisd.com

REQUIRED Excellent Sheep by William Deresiewicz

While there is no specific assignment required as you read, we strongly recommend annotating the text in such a way that you will have quick access to important ideas, evidence, counterarguments, etc. There will be assignments within the first weeks of school that rely on you having read and absorbed the book well. To guide your summer reading, here are some assignments that we envision for Fall 2019:

- to close-read a section of the book and analyze how the author promotes his purpose through strategies;
- to meditate on how your own lives are affected by the phenomenon that he describes/what is the culture surrounding college admissions at Memorial; and/or
- to agree, disagree, or qualify some of the author's claims using your own set of knowledge, such as personal experience/observations, outside readings, etc.

Important Note: please do not attempt to get ahead by doing these assignments in advance. We will specify the exact assignments in class; the above is provided to help you determine how best to prepare as you read the text.

Please note also: this reading is designed to present you with an argument that is or will be relevant in some way to most if not all of you. It is NOT intended to convince you of anything, merely to provide some context and viewpoint for consideration.
