

WHAT IS

LITERARY CRITICISM?

Literary Criticism is an academic critique of any work.

It is carried out by a scholar or other academic that uses many other references to justify any criticism

It is published in scholarly or academic journals.

It covers many aspects of the work including: content, style, and theme.