

Aldan Library Book Recommendation Form Rough Draft

Are you interested in _____?
(genre, topic, theme, subject, selling point of the book)

Then _____ recommends _____
(name) (book title)

by _____ to YOU because _____ (author) (reasons for recommendation)

Two more things you should know about this book:
(Include: a quote that demonstrates the AWESOME writing style, a description of a favorite character, the award you'd give this book if you had award-giving powers, or anything that will persuade us!)

1.

2.

Possible Reasons to Recommend a Book

- You couldn't put the book down!
- The characters in the book are interesting and entertaining.
- The problem in the story is exciting and unpredictable.
- The author uses descriptive language that is fun to read.
- The book is part of a series, and you want to get your friends interested in the series.
- The illustrations are unique or memorable.
- The story is very funny and makes you laugh while you are reading.
- The story teaches you a lesson that helps you see the world differently.
- The story reminds you of something important in your life or the world.
- The book offers a unique perspective you might not encounter in daily life.
- The book won an award.

Process: Talk about the book aloud

Write down brainstorm

Rehearse

Rough draft

Check brainstorm -- anything you missed? Add

Edit

Final draft