

Life In The Trenches

Life as a soldier is hard, depressing, and painful

Muddy, dirty, disturbing life in the trenches

Every day in the bloody trenches is hell on earth

If I should die, think only this of me

That there's some battlefield I lay on

Empty, cold and broken

Bloody battlefield

As we go on

Marching through muddy water

all weathered and worn

There shall be VICTORY for our side

We're all soldiers no matter what side you fight for

We are all soldiers no matter who you die for

Life as a soldier is hard, depressing, and painful
