

Social Discussions

while _____

Social Distancing

Crime Stoppers of Houston presents: Safety Education Video Series

While schools are out, our team is STILL offering services!
For all parents, students, teachers and administrators looking for safety training, our team will be offering educational video presentations.

Vimeo Webinar Instructions:

Browse our offerings on the following pages. To register for a class, simply click the button, fill out the form and enjoy class!

Meet your Webinar Instructors!

Jenna Fondren

Safe School Institute Manager

Jenna oversees the program by managing the team, program research, working with community partners, proving preventative education presentations to students, educators, and parents as well as recording program results.

Email: jfondren@crime-stoppers.org

Phone: (832) 849-1586

Kaitlynn Frey

Safe School Education Specialist

Kaitlynn uses prevention and awareness programs to educate students ages kindergarten through high school, school administration staff, and community members throughout the Greater Houston Area.

Email: kfrey@crime-stoppers.org

Phone: (713) 514-8022

Sydney Zuiker

Safe Community Program Manager

Sydney oversees all community programming by staying up to date on crime trends, and working diligently to educate students, parents, and the general public on how they can keep themselves and their families safe, happy and healthy at all times.

Email: szuiker@crime-stoppers.org

Phone: (832) 849-1588

CYBER SAFETY CONVERSATIONS

Cyber Safety for Tweens:

In this presentation, Jenna Fondren teaches tween students (3rd-6th grade) how to respond appropriately when exposed to inappropriate content, address dangers of posting terroristic threats, discusses digital footprint, consequences of revealing personal information, grooming techniques used by predators and cyberbullying.

***Click to Register***

Cyber Safety for Teens:

In this presentation, Jenna Fondren teaches teenage students (7th-12th grade) how to respond appropriately when exposed to inappropriate content, dangers of posting terroristic threats, digital footprint, consequences of revealing personal information, grooming techniques used by predators and cyberbullying.

***Click to Register***

A Parent Guide to Cyber Safety During COVID-19:

In this presentation, Sydney Zuiker discusses potential online dangers, cyber-crime trends, popular social media and gaming platforms, and online monitoring tools to assist in keeping our youth safe while using the internet during the COVID-19 crisis.

***Click to Register***

MENTAL HEALTH CONVERSATIONS

be nice. Elementary:

Bullying and Mental Health Education

In this presentation, Kaitlynn Frey teaches elementary students how to be inclusive, accept their peers and themselves while practicing and reinforcing anti-bullying best practices. through a four- part action plan, students are taught to notice those around them, invite change, challenge themselves and others to be kind and be empowered to take action.

K-2nd Students
Click here to register

3rd-5th Students
Click here to register

be nice. Teens:

Bullying and Mental Health Education

In this presentation, Jenna Fondren teaches teenage students (7th-12th grade) teaches middle and High School students how to recognize signs and symptoms of depression and anxiety while destigmatizing mental illness. Through a four-part action plan, students are taught to notice those around them, invite change, challenge themselves and others to be kind and be empowered to take action.

Click to Register

be nice. Parents:

A Parent's Guide to Mental Health

In this presentation, SydneyZuiker emphasizes the impact COVID-19 can have on an adolescent's mental and how parents and educators can identify signs and symptoms, when and where to seek professional help, and protocol for handling dangerous situations such as potential suicide.

Click to Register