

Project Ideas

Write a new ending for your story. This new ending should be at least one page long.

Write a continuation of your story. What happens in the new 'next' chapter? This should be at least one page in length.

Write a song that tells about your story. You may sing your song with or without music. Be prepared to perform this for the class or have someone video your performance and bring the DVD for us to enjoy!

Make a 3-minute video recording with a reenactment of one of your favorite scenes from the story.

Write a comic book that tells about your favorite part of the book. The comic strip should have a minimum of six scenes or sections. Include comic style illustrations in either black and white or color. Include dialogue bubbles, too.

Create a life-size portrait of one of the characters from your book. The portrait should include a written piece that tells about the character. The piece should also include information about events, or conflicts in the book that involve the character.

Make a shadow box or diorama displaying your favorite scene.

Write a character diary, writing at least five journal entries as if you are the main character in the story. Write down events that happen during the story and reflect on how they affected the character and why.

Write a poem about one of the characters. Be sure it is at least 8 lines long.

Create a timeline of the major events of your book. Use drawings or magazine cutouts to show the events along the timeline. Label each event.

Design a poster to advertise your book. Be creative! Include details, elaborate and use color! Try to make it 3-D or movable.
