

Joliet Township High School Summer Reading 2020 Resources Finding Reading Materials

The JTHS media specialists have curated resources students can use to find audio books, graphic novels, periodicals, and other great reading materials. Happy reading!

SCHOOL LIBRARY WEBSITES: Joliet Central and Joliet West share resources to help students find reading materials.

eREAD ILLINOIS: Students can check out ebooks and audiobooks using the library barcode on their JTHS school ID.

YOUR PUBLIC LIBRARY: Check out the catalog or speak with a teen librarian at Joliet Public, Shorewood/Troy, or Elwood/Manhattan Libraries.

AUDIOBOOK SYNC: Free audiobooks every week at audiobooksync.com. Sign up online and use the Sora app to listen.

ONLINE BOOK LISTS: Online lists, Book Award lists, and Social Media Reading Resources.

RECOMMENDATIONS FOR AP LANGUAGE AND AP LITERATURE STUDENTS: Students who are enrolled or plan to enroll in AP Lang or Lit will want to read novels from different eras to increase exposure and develop advanced reading skills. Here are a few lists of suggested novels: PrepScholar "127 Great Books for Your Prep" Albert.io "The Ultimate AP English Literature Reading List" Goodreads "101 Great Books Recommended for College-Bound Readers"
