Middle School Activities:

DEBATE & PUBLIC SPEAKING	COURT TRIAL	LEADERSHIP / CHARACTER BUILDING
 The objective of this program is to prepare students for the myriad situations both in and out of academia that require formal and informal presentations. Students will learn how to craft and present arguments, opinions and ideas. They will learn the fundamentals of rhetoric and will practice informing, persuading and motivating an audience in a variety of ways. The grading rubric was adapted with the permission of Neil Mercer, the Director of research at The University of Cambridge. The instructor of this class is Ms. Amanda Sawyer. She has taught students at the Lemay Preparatory, Ecole International, the Hudson School, Packer Collegiate, Dalton, St. Bernards and Horace Mann. Her program is focused on social skills, public speaking and presentation. It was developed in conjunction with The University of Cambridge. Their findings showed that after several months of activities and exercise in communication, delegation and presentation the children's literacy, arithmetic and reasoning scores improved significantly.	 Court or Mock trial is an exciting educational experience that requires students to present effectively, think critically, take initiative and adapt moment to moment. Court/Mock trial is a simulation that promotes the understanding of our judicial system through analysis and communication. Students learn how to prepare for a trial, depose witnesses, examine and utilize evidence, examine and cross examine witnesses and more. Students will work with materials provided by the American Bar Association and The New York State Bar Association. UNIS HUMAN RIGHTS PHOTO JOURNALISM This is a unique program with mentoring from Tut House students member of the Human Rights Project &amp; UNIS Faculty, Ms Abby Macphail. In this workshop, students will learn how to take photos, write newspaper articles, conduct interviews and transcribe the stories of those directly affected by human rights violations. There will be the opportunity to interview local activists who are bringing about change. Topics of study will include racism, discrimination against members of the LGBTQ+ community, mass incarceration, health, homelessness, immigration, and segregation. Over the course of the program, students will create an online photo exhibit featuring their pictures and articles.	 This program is a unique leadership course that gives students the skills they need to succeed in life. Dedimus Potestatem has developed an activity-based syllabus centered around character traits most sought and admired in leaders: initiative, honesty, self-control, adaptability, empathy, persuasiveness, resourcefulness, diligence, tolerance, determination, generosity, punctuality, courage, reliability, endurance, deference, creativity and integrity. This program uses fun projects and games that encourage the exploration and application of leadership traits. While cultivating the skills they will need to build strong, successful relationships; they will learn how to find their voice and showcase themselves and their work in the best way. Students will learn to be better team leaders and team players. They will learn how to deal with situations they encounter in life, such as bullying, cheating, conflicts between two or more parties, and more. These building blocks will ensure they grow to become the leaders so sought after by our burgeoning society.
SPEECH-WRITING &amp; RHETORIC		Ms. Amanda Sawyer Founder and Director Dedimus Potestatem www.potestatem.co
This course teaches the tools to open the hearts and minds of others and move toward positive, sustainable change, in civil disagreement cases. Students learn to apply the tools and tactics from the Harvard Program on Negotiation and the Institute for Personal Leadership at Columbia Business School. Through analysis, reflection and multi-party simulations students learn the best ways to revive civil disagreement and civil discourse in communities. The instructor is Ms. Amanda Sawyer.

Financial literacy is an essential 21st century skill that will give students an edge in life”. This class is offered by “SPARK Business Academy”.

I Am a Writer

I write.
I write the truth.
I write what reveals truth.
I write my perception of the truth.
I write what inspires the truth in others.
I write the truth that causes us to cringe.

WRITOPA

Writopia Lab runs one of the most fun and productive writing workshops for children and teens in New York City.

Each year, Writopia teens win more writing award than any other group of students. While the focus of the writing workshops is on story and creative expression, the students explore structure and grammar and ultimately organize their thoughts into coherent, fluid complete narratives.

Workshops are run by published authors or produced playwrights. The method is student-centered; at Writopia, teens write at their best ability. Sessions are peppered with instructive games and helpful exercises. Each writer leaves the workshop with a completed piece in hand. Information : writopialab.org

Middle School Special Activities:

CLAY DESIGN CLUB

Clay Modeling & Character Design Workshops explores the art of Clay Modeling.

This artistic class helps student's improve their creativity, fine motor skills and artistic capabilities. Monsters, Fairies, animals, backdrops and all sorts of creatures will hand built to create an amazing Clay World.

Different techniques will be implemented such as pointillism, spreads, textured clay among others. "Sculpting let children and adults express their feelings and creativity in a magical manner, even more if this is carried out with such a playful material such as clay".

This class is offered by "Clay World Studio" www.clayworld.org

MAGICAL WORLD OF ELECTRONICS

Paperactive with Teknikio

In this class, the students will explore the magical world of paper and electronics! They will start by reviewing basics of electronics and circuit design using lightweight electronic modules and conductive tape. Students will also practice the design prototyping process taking an idea from concept to model.

They will build origami that moves and light up and then start to experiment with sensors and programming. Students will learn to program Bluetooth light boards using a visual coding interface and design a lamp that turns on in response to signals from the Internet. No prior programming or electronics experience necessary.

This class is offered by Invent-abling. Deren Guler is the physicist and the founder. She makes kits with interesting smart materials & electronics that can be embedded in a variety of dynamic projects. Deren holds a master's of Tangible Interaction Design from Carnegie Mellon University. She leads workshops and presentations at The Children's Museum of Pittsburgh MAKESHOP, Society for Contemporary Craft, East Carolina University, Carnegie Science Center and Andy Warhol Museum.

COMPUTER ANIMATION for Pro

This class is taught by industry professionals with the latest tools of the trade including Adobe Suite, and professional audio equipment. Students learn to design original characters, and bring them to life using techniques such as live-motion capture, vectoring animation, and utilizing tweens! They will plan, write, storyboard, and create an animated short. They will learn about voice acting techniques as they use professional microphones and audio equipment to add voice overs and sound effects to bring their story to life.

This class is offered by CinemaKidz a New York City's premiere STEAM and Media program. The classes are interdisciplinary in their design; include building, robotics, historical research and critical thinking skills, writing, art, engineering, and more.

MOTHER TONGUE PROGRAM

The Mother Tongue Program provides instruction mainly for students who already possess good oral and comprehension skills in the languages offered at UNIS and need to work on their reading and writing skills.

The reading and writing activities assimilate grammar and vocabulary. The program emphasizes on multi-sensory learning through verbal, visual and tactile association.

It offers progressive series of lessons organized around themes incorporating creative, customized teaching materials and music. Technology is integrated through the use of different apps and websites are used as a medium of teaching and learning. The program may be beneficial as preparation for the 3rd language program. The students may be required to complete home study activities in order to strengthen their skills and offer additional practice opportunities outside of the classroom.

All classes are subject to enrollment and teachers' availability. The level, the program of studies and activities are at the discretion of the respective language teachers. The students may be required to complete home study activities in order to strengthen their skills and encourage additional practice opportunities outside of the classroom.

The Mother Tongue Program also offers to beginner level students the opportunity to learn the language and culture in a fun and engaging way. Basic vocabulary and oral communication skills will be introduced in parallel to reading and writing the language and a practical use of the language.

Technology is integrated through the use of different apps and websites are used as a medium of teaching and learning.
