Classified Personnel
Series 450

VACANCIES WITHIN THE SYSTEM
Policy No. 450.4

All classified personnel may make application for other positions within the school system for which they are qualified, providing a vacancy exists.

The administration is directed to inform all personnel of positions that are vacant within the system.

In making application for posted vacancies, classified staff members should submit their application in writing within five days after the notice of the position is posted, to the principal, director or superintendent, whichever is appropriate.
