

Summer Learning Assignment: Visual Arts

The only way to get better at drawing or anything is life is to practice. One way is to constantly use your drawing skills over the summer. By creating short drawings, you will improve your quick drawing skills and you will be at an advantage in the fall. Here is a short 30-day drawing assignment. You can do them all or pick and choose the one you want to do. Some drawings are items you might find around the house and some you can use from your imagination.
