Barbara Kruger

BARBARA KRUGER

WHOSE HOPES?
WHOSE FEARS?
WHOSE VALUES?
WHOSE JUSTICE?

Barbara Kruger (born January 26, 1945) is an American conceptual artist and collagist. Most of her work consists of black-and-white photographs, overlaid with declarative captions, stated in white-on-red Futura Bold Oblique or Helvetica Ultra Condensed text. The phrases in her works often include pronouns such as "you", "your", "I", "we", and "they", addressing cultural constructions of power, identity, consumerism, and sexuality. Kruger lives and works in New York and Los Angeles. Kruger is a Distinguished Professor of New Genres at the UCLA School of the Arts and Architecture.

Here are a couple of YouTube videos to watch:

Create a piece of art inspired by the work of Barbara Kruger. You can use cut out letters or photos from magazines or newspapers. You can draw letters or pictures. Try using your phone if you can. Maybe take a photo, edit it to be black and white then put type on it. Some of Kruger's work is large scale on buildings. What would you write on city hall? BHS? Your own home? Be creative, ask an important question.

-I look forward to seeing what you come up with!
