

The School Psychological Services department provides evaluation services to assist in the identification of students for exceptional education services. They also provide support services and assistance in the development of behavior intervention plans for students with identified needs. For additional information contact Jinny Monroe at 816-418-5206.