

MEET THE PRE-PREP STAFF

2020-2021

AN AMBITIOUS FORWARD THINKING COMMUNITY THAT INSPIRES A LOVE OF LEARNING FROM THE EARLIEST STAGES

MEET THE PRE-PREP STAFF

Kirsty Leane

Position: Head of EYFS - Nursery Teacher

Favourite book: I love so many books I find it hard to choose just one! A book I love reading to my class is Where is the Green Sheep by Mem Fox and a book I love rereading for myself is Harry Potter.

Favourite St Dunstan's value: Compassion

Favourite school lunch: Curry

Interesting fact: I am Australian, but when I was seven my family lived in Trinidad and Tobago.

Carol Isaac

Position: Reception Form teacher

Favourite book: The Picture of Dorian Gray by Oscar Wilde

Favourite St Dunstan's value: Curiosity - it's the heart of Early Years

Favourite school lunch: Fish and chips on Funday Friday!

Interesting fact: I can make a Savile Row hand tailored suit, bake the wedding cake of your dreams and I used to work with Simon Cowell.

Emily Rogers

Position: Head of Pre-Prep

Favourite book: The Song of Achilles by Madeline Miller. I love the book itself, as well as the memories I have of reading it on my travels through South East Asia.

Favourite St Dunstan's value: Creativity - I love working for a College that values each member of its community as in individual.

Favourite school lunch: They are all so delicious it is far too hard to choose a favourite! You can usually find me choosing one of the fantastic vegetarian meals in the Green Zone.

Interesting fact: I can speak Spanish and I have met the Queen twice.

Andrea Rose

Position: Reception Form teacher

Favourite book: The Life of Pi by Yann Martel

Favourite St Dunstan's value: Courage

Favourite school lunch: Vegetable curry

Interesting fact: I met Nelson Mandela

Michael Clifford

Position: Year 1 Form Teacher

Favourite book: Into The Wild by Jon Krakauer

Favourite St Dunstan's value:

Creativity - I chose this value as I feel it allows everyone to express themselves and show their true personality. Albert Einstein said creativity is intelligence having fun and I love the idea of this!

Favourite school lunch: Chorizo and pearl barley stew, followed by chocolate sponge and chocolate custard.

Interesting fact: I lived and worked in Thailand for two years, which was an amazing experience. I loved immersing myself in a different culture and was able to visit many countries in Asia whilst living there.

Rachel Grattan-Kane

Position: Year 1 Form Teacher (Part time)

Favourite book: Winnie-the-Pooh by A.A. Milne. It was my favourite book as a child and I still enjoy it! I love all of the characters and used to wish I could be on all of their adventures in The Hundred Acre Wood.

Favourite St Dunstan's value: Compassion - It is always great to be understanding of others and appreciate our friends, family and community.

Favourite school lunch: I love the calamari and noodles!

Interesting fact: I taught and lived abroad for many years in Bahrain and Shanghai! I learnt a lot, made many friends and had lots of amazing travelling adventures!

Sevene Ghandour

Position: Year 2 Form Teacher

Favourite book: Charlotte's Web by E.B.White

Favourite St Dunstan's value: Courage

Favourite school lunch: Fishfingers, chips and baked beans

Interesting fact: I am skilled in Chinese calligraphy and love trying to paint complex Chinese characters.

Ben Chambers

Position: Year 2 Form Teacher

Favourite book: The Dark is Rising by Susan Cooper

Favourite St Dunstan's value: Curiosity

Favourite school lunch: The delicious pies

Interesting fact: I am writing a children's book.
