

Misericordia University
Important Update March 19, 2020

President Thomas Botzman – COVID-19 Emergency Preparedness Task Force

Misericordia Employees:

Governor Tom Wolf has mandated that non-life-sustaining businesses close. On-line and remote learning activities will continue. Misericordia University courses will continue as scheduled. Faculty should continue courses as planned. Any employee who needs to retrieve a computer or other items important to your job duties should do so by 8:00 tonight, Thursday, March 19, 2020.

All employees of Misericordia University should telecommute on Friday, March 20, 2020. Those who are unable to telecommute should stay home.
