Advanced Rhetorical Analysis Summer Work

Beyond the Tilton School “Summer Learning” project for all students, AP English students are asked to read the Atlantic Magazine editions for June, and July/August. The edition covers are pictured below. These periodicals are available online (see link below), at newstands, and even in libraries! Mr. Redman will send emails to students signed up for the course to share writing prompts so you can compose your thoughts prior to your arrival to Tilton School this fall.

The Atlantic, June 2020

The Atlantic, July/August 2020

“Thank you for contacting The Atlantic. We do not currently have an option to purchase individual digital editions. However, you can subscribe to Digital only online at the academic rate to access the issues you need, you can then cancel the order and receive a prorated refund for the remaining term”
