

Trinity-Pawling School

Therapy Fund FAQs

What types of therapies are covered by the therapy fund?

Therapies recommended by a licensed, qualified mental health professional are covered. Please contact RAINN at the Trinity-Pawling School Therapy Fund Hotline at 1 (833) 521-0874 or click here for a list of covered therapies that have been demonstrated to be effective for survivors of sexual abuse.

What are the required qualifications for an eligible mental health provider?

Providers must be licensed to practice in their state and hold a master's degree or higher in a mental health discipline.

What is the maximum amount of support available to alumni?

The Trinity-Pawling School Therapy Fund has been established to provide a $10,000 USD lifetime maximum for covered services including coverage for past therapy related to sexual abuse.

What happens when I call RAINN seeking financial assistance or reimbursement? How will requests for financial assistance or reimbursement be approved?

RAINN will administer the intake process for all callers seeking services and verify that the caller is a Trinity-Pawling School alumnus, as defined as anyone who either attended and/or graduated from Trinity-Pawling School. Trinity-Pawling School will not have access to callers' therapy treatment records or other confidential information. No personally identifiable information, including the name of the caller, will be provided to Trinity-Pawling School. RAINN will ask callers to provide certain information during the intake (e.g., name, date of birth, class year, current address, phone number, email, the name of the alleged perpetrator, dates of the alleged abuse, a brief description of the nature of the alleged abuse).

How does this process protect my anonymity and confidentiality?

RAINN will report incidents to the State as required in accordance with New York State Law but otherwise maintains confidentiality concerning all information received from survivors. Once RAINN has completed the intake process and confirmed that the caller is an alumnus, RAINN will notify the Third-Party Claim's Administrator, John Ellingsen, who will reach out and make contact with you. Neither RAINN nor the claims administrator will provide Trinity-Pawling School with any identifying information about callers or claims.

How do I share feedback on the Trinity-Pawling School Therapy Fund or claims process?

Trinity-Pawling School welcomes feedback on the Trinity-Pawling School Therapy Fund and claims process. Please share your feedback with RAINN by emailing morganh@rainn.org.

What if I am in need of immediate counseling assistance?

RAINN runs the National Sexual Assault Hotline in partnership with more than 1,000 local service providers. The hotline can be used to access immediate support services, including crisis intervention, information, and resources, 24/7/365 by anyone affected by sexual violence. RAINN's National Sexual Assault Hotline can be accessed by phone at (800) 656-4673 or online at www.hotline.rainn.org.