BREAKOUT SESSION (DC)

Site significance

- Was a former teacher at Pitcher
- Lives only two miles away
- Lots of people who live nearby don't have kids in the schools
- The neighborhood is changing
- It was a best kept secret as an Alternative School

Strengths

- Community still alive
- Close to Blue Ridge Crossing
- Lots of rooms, gym, etc

Community Needs

- Looking for something that will attract families to move into the neighborhood when the seniors leave their homes
- After-school tutoring
- Services for senior citizens (not sure what exact needs are)
- Place to gather

Reuse Options (that could address community needs)

- Could be an Alternative School again
- Partnerships with Pitcher
- Community services/resources (like how Guadalupe Center is a resource for the community)

The following are responses to informal proposals received by the Repurposing Office:

- Charter School
  - Already have a wonderful school in the neighborhood (Pitcher) and don't want to impact it; don't want to see charter compete with district school
