

BIRTH CONTROL STATIONS

Name _____

Period _____

NOT HAVING SEX

Not having sex is _____% effective.

If a person is choosing not to have sex why is it important to discuss this with a partner?

If someone is choosing to not have sex, how else might he/she show affection to a partner?

What are two advantages of not having sex?

EMERGENCY CONTRACEPTION

Where can someone get emergency contraception?

How does emergency contraception prevent pregnancy?

Name two situations when someone might decide to use emergency contraception.

IUD

How effective is the IUD? _____

How does the IUD prevent pregnancy?

For how many years does each type of IUD work?

Copper IUD _____

Hormonal IUD _____

INSERTIVE CONDOMS

How does the insertive condom prevent pregnancy?

How effective are insertive condoms? _____

What are two advantages of the insertive condom? _____

CONDOMS

Where can someone get condoms?

How does the condom prevent pregnancy?

How effective are condoms? _____

VAGINAL RING

How does the Vaginal Ring prevent pregnancy?

How effective is the Vaginal Ring? _____

How long does the Vaginal Ring stay in the vagina? _____

IMPLANT

Where can someone go to get the Implant?

How long does the Implant prevent pregnancy?

How effective is the Implant? _____

SHOT

Where can someone go to get the Shot?

How long does the Shot prevent pregnancy?

How effective is the Shot? _____

PILL

Where can someone get the Birth Control Pill?

How does the Birth Control Pill prevent pregnancy?

What can make the Birth Control Pill less effective?

PATCH

How would a woman use the Patch correctly?

How effective is the Patch? _____

What are three benefits of using the Patch?