Cita de la semana: ~ San Francisco de Sales

SIX SCAMS TO DODGE THIS YEAR – You probably are weary of reading about scams so often, but the incidence of seniors losing enormous amounts of money because they were taken in by one is growing at an alarming rate. I still remember a Vienna area resident who lost several thousands of dollars after falling for the “Grandma, I’m in the hospital/jail and need money to pay my bill/post bail – please don’t tell my parents” scheme, despite all of the publicity about that particular scam. Here are some of the hottest ones in 2020, each outlining the way they present themselves, the pitch they make, the way they arrive, and how you can prevent becoming a victim.

Job Fraud – The pose: Crooks find potential victims using online search tools to look for resumes of job seekers. The pitch: You’re contacted about what sounds like the job of a lifetime and even given a check to cover expenses – just wire money back or send gift cards to cover fees. Only later do you figure out the check is fake. The approach: Usually, via e-mail or a professional networking site. The prevention: Real jobs don’t come at a cost (actual recruiters are paid by the businesses.)

Census Scams – The pose: Impostors could pretend to be census takers. The pitch: You could be asked for your Social Security Number or credit card information. The approach: A fake census worker shows up at your door. Or you’re contacted by phone, mail or e-mail. The prevention: The Census Bureau will never ask for your Social Security number, solicit donations or threaten you with arrest if you don’t cooperate. Census takers carry government IDs. For more information, visit 2020census.gov.

Election scams – The pose: Scammers send out fake ads as political action committees or pose as pollsters or campaign volunteers. The pitch: They pretend to be legitimate fundraisers to trick you into giving them your credit card number or sending a “donation: by gift card or wire transfer. The approach: Phone, e-mail, social media posts – the same way that candidates contact you. The prevention: Don’t donate to a candidate from an unsolicited pitch. Reach out directly to those you support.

Medicare cons – The pose: A crook will tell you that you can get a free DNA swab test for cancer, or medical devices or services. The pitch: To get free health care, you just need to provide your Medicare number. The approach: This offer usually comes via phone or e-mail. Vans drive through neighborhoods, with people knocking on doors offering tests in return for Medicare numbers. The prevention: Never give your Medicare number to anyone but a trusted medical professional.

Phishing Amazon – The pose: Scammers pretend to be Amazon representatives, taking advantage of the fact that the company sent more than 3.5 billion packages last year. The pitch: You’ll be told a package can’t be delivered until you “confirm” your credit card number. The approach: Crooks send out millions of random e-mails. Within the e-mail is a link that, if opened, places malware on your computer to harvest data. The prevention: Don’t give information via a link. Go to Amazon’s website directly to check.

COVID-19 cons – The pose: You get an e-mail offering a coronavirus vaccine or access to critical medical equipment. The pitch: Anxiety’s high; you are urged to protect yourself. The approach: Some e-mails ask for credit card information, then bill you for products that never arrive. Others include a link that will install malware to steal your passwords. The prevention: Visit government health agency websites for updates. Be wary of e-mails during a crisis. There is no COVID-19 vaccine! (Thanks to AARP Bulletin.)

UPDATE ON MEET ME AT THE MOVIES – The Reston Association has advised that this monthly event, also known as “Senior Movie Day”, at Bow Tie Cinema in Reston Town Center, is canceled through June. It is hoping to host the program again beginning in July. Further updates will be posted here as they become available.

ENCORE: SENIOR SHOPPING HOURS – One more time, for those of you who might have missed it: BJ’s: all wholesale club locations: 8-9 am daily; CVS: 9-10 am, Wednesdays; Costco: 8-9 am T-W-Th 60+; Fresh Market: 8-9 am, M-F; Giant: 6-7 am daily; Safeway: 7-9 am Tuesday and Thursday Target: 8-9 am 65+; Trader Joe’s: Seniors have a separate line to enter the store for expedited entry 9-10 am daily; Walgreens: 8-9 am Tuesdays; Walmart: 6-7 am Tuesdays; Wegmans: No senior shopping hours; Whole Foods: 7-8 am 60+.

ELDER WISDOM – This morning I saw a neighbor talking to her cat. It was obvious she thought the cat understood her. I came into my house and told my dog. We laughed a lot. (Sorry, this is what happens after too many days of self-isolation!)

In union, dear Lord, with the priests at every altar of your Church, where your Blessed Body and Blood are being offered to the Father,
I desire to offer you praise and thanksgiving.
I present to you my soul and body,
with the earnest wish that I may be always united to you.

And since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, I ask you to come spiritually into my heart. I unite myself to you, and embrace you with all the affections of my soul.
O let nothing ever separate you from me.
Let me live and die in your love.
Amen.

When we cannot go to the church
let us turn toward the tabernacle;
no wall can shut us out from The Good God.
