Parish Events & Updates

Even though we are apart, we are still a community of faith.

We can no longer accept stamps for the Sisters during this time. Please keep them in your households until the drive commences back next year.

Faith Direct Secure Sign Up: To encourage greater participation of Faith Direct eGiving, an anonymous donor has pledged to provide a $50 gift card to Great American Restaurants (which includes Patsy's and Randy's in Tysons Corner and Sweetwater Tavern in Merrifield) for the first 100 families who sign up for weekly donations through Faith Direct. Your generous gift will not only directly support OLGC but will also help the employees of one of our great community restaurants and organizations as they also deal with these challenging times. Please sign up for Faith Direct eGiving at <https://membership.faithdirect.net/enroll/VA875>. You can also text the word "ENROLL" to 703-810-7674. Thank you for your continued support of our parish family.

Hours: Office Open - Mon - Fri 9am - 12noon

Church/Chapel Open - Mon - Fri 8am - 5pm, Sat. & Sun 8am - 12noon

Please remember to keep a safe distance from one another and not exceeding the 10-person limit. Please use the front main doors of the Church from the bell tower or the door closest to the Administration Building. All other doors will be locked. Please DO NOT park in the circle.

Missalettes are Available - Because we will not be celebrating Mass together in the foreseeable future, all the missalettes and the Easter Season's Word Among Us books are on tables in the Narthex. All are welcome to come and take them home so you may celebrate at home with the Masses online.

Mass & prayer reflection recordings are posted online: www.olgcva.org/live

We are in communications with our homebound and our seniors, but if at any time you are in need of assistance or want to volunteer to help others, please contact Amy Schlanger, 703.896.7424 or email development@olgcva.org. She is making a list of volunteers and those who need assistance.

We have updated our database and email address lists and all parishioners should be receiving Fr. Matt's Musings and OLGC community wide emails with updates. These messages are the most up to date as this bulletin is made a week before it is published. If you are a registered parishioner and are not receiving emails from the church, please check your spam or junk folder or email communications@olgcva.org with your information.

The Stay Healthy news announcement will be updated as needed www.olgcva.org/news-post/~post/response.

The OLGC Oblates will continue to say private Masses for the scheduled intentions. The bulletin has these intentions listed on the first page so that all may pray for them.

Daily readings are available online www.usccb.org/bible/readings/. The Magnificat is now available for free online us.magnificat.net/free. Visit the Diocese's website for a listing of local Live stream Masses, prayer guides and more! <https://www.arlingtondiocese.org/covid19resources/> as well as daily Mass www.wordonfire.org/daily-mass/.

HOW OLD ARE WE? - My mom, who lived to be 102, loved to collect clever sayings, jokes, and words of wisdom. After she died, I found a notebook she'd filled with such things, and the following is one of her favorites – "Profile of a Senior." She really loved to talk about how life was "back in the day," was proud of the way she was able to manage through difficult times, and often referred to herself as "a tough old bird." Keep in mind that she was born in 1908, long before we came into this world, and the things mentioned below were probably already part of the growing-up years of many of you. However, given all of the heaviness on our hearts because of COVID-19, I thought I'd pass it on to you for a little stroll down Memory Lane, perhaps even a smile or two. Here we go....

A Senior is one who was here before television, penicillin, polio shots, antibiotics, and frisbees. Before frozen food, nylon, Dacron, Xerox, Kinsey, radar, fluorescent lights, credit cards and ballpoint pens. For us, time-sharing meant togetherness, not computers; a chip meant a piece of wood, hardware meant hard wear and software wasn't even a word. Coeds never wore slacks. We were before pantyhose, and drip-dry clothes, before ice makers and dishwashers, clothes dryers, freezers, and electric blankets. Before Hawaii and Alaska became states. Before men wore long hair and earrings and women wore tuxedos. We were before yogurt, Ann Landers, plastic, the 40-hour week and minimum wage. We got married first and then lived together. How quaint can one be?

Closets were for clothes, not for coming out, bunnies were small rabbits, and rabbits were not Volkswagens. We were before Grandma Moses and Frank Sinatra. We were before Batman, Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer and Snoopy. Before DDT, vitamin pills, disposable diapers, Q.E. One, Jeeps, Cheerios, instant coffee, decaffeinated anything, and McDonald's was unheard of. We thought fast food was what you ate during Lent. We were before Boy George, J.D. Salinger and Chiquita Banana, before FM radios, tape recorders electric typewriters, word processors, Muzak, disco dancing and that's not all bad!

In our day, cigarette smoking was fashionable, grass was for mowing, Coke was a refreshing drink and pot was something you could cook in. If we'd been around to explain CIA, MS, NATO, UFO, NFL, JFK, and ERA, we'd have said "alphabet soup." We are today's senior citizens, a hardy bunch when you think of how our world has changed and the adjustments we've had to make!

DIDN'T RECEIVE A CENSUS FORM? – Many of us haven't received the mailing from the Census Bureau regarding the 2020 Census. Whether or not you've received it, your participation is required and you can still complete the Census Questionnaire online by the end of this month. Here's what to do:

Go to the 2020 Census website: <https://my2020census.gov>. The opening page has links to Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ), instructions and choice of language.

To get started, click on the righthand side of the page at Start Here> or on the text box: Start Questionnaire.

The Questionnaire page asks you to Log In. If you've received the Census mailing, enter the 12-digit Census ID code from the mailing and proceed. If you have not received the mailing, go to the lower-left corner of the page and click "If you do not have a Census ID, click here" and proceed to provide the requested information.

Confirm that all the information you've provided is correct and click "Submit."

The results of the census will determine congressional representation and provide data that will impact communities for the next decade. They will inform decisions about allowing hundreds of billions of dollars to go to fire departments, school lunch programs, and other critical programs and services.

While Census Takers are scheduled to visit homes of non-responders beginning May 1, the Census Bureau will continue to monitor the evolving COVID-19 outbreak and will adjust operations as necessary in order to follow federal, state and local guidelines.

Census Takers must show a photo ID with the U.S. Department of Commerce seal and an expiration date. If you ask, they will provide a supervisor's contact information and/or the census regional office phone number for verification if you have any suspicions of a scam. They will never ask you for your full Social Security number, bank account or credit card numbers, money or donations or anything on behalf of a political party. This Census does not ask citizenship status.

ELDER WISDOM – Half of us are going to come out of this quarantine as amazing cooks. The other half will come out with a drinking problem.

In union, dear Lord, with the priests
at every altar of your Church,
where your Blessed Body and Blood are being offered to the Father,
I desire to offer you praise and thanksgiving.
I present to you my soul and body,
with the earnest wish that I may be always united to you.

And since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, I ask you to come spiritually into my heart. I unite myself to you, and embrace you with all the affections of my soul.
O let nothing ever separate you from me.
Let me live and die in your love.
Amen.

When we cannot go to the church
let us turn toward the tabernacle;
no wall can shut us out from The Good God.
