In this work, we will discover the true power that our Spirituality offers us in the midst of brokenness and difficulty. Father Brian will share life changing experiences gained from his ministries at Nativity Prep and Salesianum High School.

Seven Deadly Sins, Seven Lively Virtues Tuesdays Feb 25th -April 7th During the Season of Lent, our Tuesday Scripture Study will be exploring Seven Deadly Sins, Seven Lively Virtues. Join Bishop Robert Barron for this presentation of the seven deadly sins, those great spiritual blocks that inhibit our flourishing in relationship with God and one another. Based on Dante's writings, the seven deadly sins correspond to the seven stories of Dante's Mt. Purgatory. Pride, envy, anger, sloth, gluttony, avarice and lust are all presented as patterns of dysfunction within us that lead to unhappiness. Bishop Barron shows us how to counteract these seven sinful patterns through a conscious process of opposition, known as the "seven lively virtues." These offer antidotes to each sin and help set us on the right path to healing and happiness. Study will take place on Tuesdays, February 25-April 7th, 9:15 am to 11:15 am, in St. Joseph Center, Brisson Room. For more info and to purchase the study guide, check out our website: <https://www.olgcv.org/faith-formation/adults>. Questions? Contact Amy Winkler, dre@olgcv.org, 703.896.7414.

Our program thoughtfully and purposefully incorporates these concepts into everyday play and classroom activities. With a balanced and developmentally appropriate focus on social, emotional, physical, religious and academic growth, OLGC preschool fosters a program where your child will grow as a student and friend in a safe and nurturing environment. Your child is a blessing, let OLGC Preschool be blessed with the presence of your child. OLGC is currently accepting applications for the 2020 – 2021 school year. Senior Moments

Questions or comments about this column, contact Marge Van Lierde, Gitkagirl@gmail.com, 571-831-3951

SEASONED CITIZENS – This is the first call for the next Senior Luncheon on February 13 at Noon in De Sales Hall. This event is a wonderful way for seniors of OLGC to gather and socialize, enjoying a delicious lunch and entertainment afterward. There is no charge, but you do have to make a reservation for planning purposes. This is easily done by contacting Bev MacDonald at OLGCSeniors@gmail.com or 703-281-4973. Because the weather at this time of year is so unpredictable, next month's buffet will be simpler, featuring soup and sandwiches...and desserts, of course! In the event of inclement weather, OLGC follows Fairfax County's cancellation policy. The Book Swap table will be up and running. Bring a book or two, feel free to take some. Jigsaw puzzles (with all the pieces!) are also welcome, but nothing else, please.

DO YOU HAVE TWO HOURS? – The Shepherd's Center of Oakton-Vienna is recruiting volunteers to become drivers for its free Medical and Companion Transportation of seniors to appointments. The need increased in the last months because the Center has extended its services to include Reston and Herndon in addition to Oakton and Vienna. Your commitment of time, even only two hours, is very flexible. To learn more, please call 703-281-0538 for an application. For additional information, visit www.scov.org and facebook.com/scov.org. Since 1998 Shepherd's center of Oakton-Vienna has alleviated isolation and loneliness in our communities through medical and companion transportation, friendly callers and visitors, a veterans' visitor program, education and social enrichment, and a lot more! Please give some serious thought to joining the SCOV Team today!

ENCORE MOMENTS – Disposing of American Flags presents a dilemma for some people, they just don't know what to do with them once they get old, tattered and torn. If you have an American flag like this, you can properly dispose of it at a few county government locations. One drop-off place is at the Fairfax County Government Center, 12000 Government Center Parkway in Fairfax. When you walk into the lobby of the Center, you'll see a flag disposal box located near the main information desk. There are flag disposal boxes located at the I-66 Transfer Station and are available during residential hours. The American Legion collects flags and conducts a Flag Retirement Ceremony at both of these sites. Another place is at any Fairfax County Police Station where they're collected twice a year by a Police Honor Guard for proper disposal. The most convenient place to dispose of it is at Mill and Cherry

Streets, near the Vienna Community Center where you can drop it into a specially-painted mailbox.

LOOKING AHEAD – If you're tired of looking up at gray skies, then consider attending an afternoon of music that's sure to lift your spirits. At 4 pm on February 23, the Main Street Community Band will be presenting "Postcards, a Musical Journey" featuring 'Kilimanjaro – an African Portrait,' by Robert Washburn. This concert is filled with captivating rhythmic vitality and strong musical textures. It will take place at Lanier Middle School, 3801 Jermantown Rd. in Fairfax. Senior tickets are only $5, available at the door.

Another great event is a trip to the Philadelphia Flower Show on March 4, offered by Vienna Parks & Recreation. It's an annual floral extravaganza at the Pennsylvania Convention Center, one that earns its reputation as the world's oldest and largest indoor flower show. This year's theme is "Riviera Holiday." Visitors to the show are treated to fabulous designs, live entertainment, gardening how-to workshops and lectures by experts. Transportation will be a 55-passenger coach bus with a restroom. Lunch and dinner are on your own (the famous Reading Market is just across the street!) Vienna town residents pay $67, everyone else pays $83.75 which covers transportation and a ticket to the show. Register via your WebTrac account or stop in at the Vienna Community Center to do it in person.

Lastly, there's a trip to the National Museum of African American History and Culture on February 5, also an offering of Vienna Parks & Recreation. This museum is in Washington, DC, the only national museum devoted exclusively to the documentation of African American life, history, and culture. Lunch will be on your own at the Sweet Home Café housed in the museum. Vienna residents pay $32, everyone else pays $40. Follow the registration directions in the previous paragraph.

GETTING ORGANIZED – Do you spend too much time looking for things? Are you struggling to manage the things that seem to be taking over your life? On Monday, February 3 from 10-11 am. Certified professional organizer Maria Spetalnick will discuss ways to find the right solutions to your problems and help you live a better, easier life. This is a free presentation at the Vienna Community Center.

ELDER WISDOM – Try to remember, the greener grass on the other side of the fence may be due to a septic tank issue.

"We all have a vocation. We believe that God has called us to this life to fill a special need that no one else can accomplish." – St. Francis de Sales. Discerning one's vocation is a key part of everyone's life. God continues to call men to the religious life and priesthood on a daily basis. The question many ask is: How do I know God is calling me? Christian Stewardship

As Christians we are asked to view all of our gifts as blessings from God, nurturing them during our lifetime and returning them to our Heavenly Father with an increase. One way we can do that is to help our parish meet its future needs by including OLGC in your will. For more information, call the Diocesan Planned Giving Office at 703-841-3819 or visit www.arlingtondiocese.planyourlegacy.org.

A Call to be Holy God calls each of us to a vocation, the vocation to holiness. This vocation may look different for each person, but discovering it and living it out leads to our happiness and fulfillment. "May the Lord direct your hearts to the love of God." Are you being called to love the Lord with an undivided heart as a priest, deacon or in the consecrated life? Call Fr. Michael Isenberg, (703) 841-2514, or write: michael.isenberg@arlingtondiocese.org.

Please consider adding the Diocesan audio offerings of 'The Walk Humbly Podcast', 'Searching for More' and 'Catholic Herald' to your podcast list!
