On the first Monday of the month at 7pm we gather together as a parish community to pray Evening Prayer in the Chapel. It will be followed by a light reception in the Narthex. Evening Holy Hour - Wed. Jan. 8th 7pm - Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament will occur every 2nd Wednesday of the month from 7-8pm in the Chapel. "Jesus waits for us in this sacrament of love." (St. Pope John Paul II). Come experience the loving gaze of Jesus in Eucharistic Adoration on December 11th at 7pm and every 2nd Wednesday of the month. There will be guided reflections and worship led by members of The Restless as well as times of quiet and stillness. It is the perfect way to reset in the middle of a busy week and during a busy time of year, to fix our eyes on Jesus and allow him to speak into our hearts. Eucharistic adoration flows from our time at Mass for "our communal worship at Mass must go together with our personal worship of Jesus in Eucharistic adoration in order that our love may be complete." (St. Pope John Paul II) This is in request from parishioners who are unable to attend Friday monthly adoration during the day.

Outreach - Fr. John Dolan

frdolan@olgcva.org

“The opportunity of doing great things does not come very often, but at every moment, we can do little acts with great love.” - St. Francis de Sales

As followers of Christ, we are each called through our Baptism to serve our sisters and brothers in our parish, our community, our country, and the world. It is our hope that every parishioner is given the opportunity to discover and develop his/her God-given gifts. Please visit our Outreach webpage to see the variety of ways you can assist opportunities that are offered, discover where you fit in and see our listing of events <https://www.olgcva.org/outreach/serve>. For more information on the parish's efforts for Caring for our Common Home contact Fr. John Dolan, OSFS, Coordinator of Outreach Mission, frdolan@olgcva.org.

Thank You!

Fellow parishioners,

If you notice me strutting thru the OLGC campus with my chest like a braggart its entirely your fault. You people are the best! With the Giving Tree time over let me please respond to your generosity. Over 1200 tags and envelopes were taken leaving a barren tree. You provided gift cards for over 210 retired sisters at St. Joseph Villa! You set a new record of donations to 13 other agencies and jumped in with the new plan for the sick and homebound. And so many high priced items, such as iPads, bikes and large donations. I watched as many of you took more than 2 tags from the tree. A big thanks to the tag writers, office administration and volunteers who helped move, sort and load the gifts. Once again it was my pleasure to represent OLGC for our unfortunate fiends and rest assured every dollar donated is spent for their cause. As usual, Fr. Matt will get a detailed report of all the monies spent. Thanks again and God bless, Mike Egan.

Monthly Social & Service: Friday, January 17th after the 8:30am Mass. Join us for great company and a light service project. We will gather in DeSales Hall for breakfast, fellowship, and service. "Developing character, faith, and life-long learners in the Salesian Tradition."

To celebrate Baby's Jesus' birthday the preschoolers brought baby gifts that were delivered to Hope in Northern Virginia.

Students love spending times with their prayer partners.

Preschool is an exciting time for a child and the parents. It is an introduction to play-based learning, an opportunity to cultivate friendships and a time to blossom in independence and self-awareness. Through individual, small group and whole group instruction, OLGC preschool students begin to explore the wonders of language, literacy, mathematics, religion and the arts. Our program thoughtfully and purposefully incorporates these concepts into everyday play and classroom activities. With a balanced and developmentally appropriate focus on social, emotional, physical, religious and academic growth, OLGC preschool fosters a program where your child will grow as a student and friend in a safe and nurturing environment. Your child is a blessing, let OLGC Preschool be blessed with the presence of your child. OLGC is currently accepting applications for the 2020 – 2021 school year. Students eligible for our three-year-old program must turn 3 by September 30, 2020. ## Senior Moments

Marge Van Lierde, Gitkagirl@gmail.com, 571-831-3951

EPIPHANY - Today we celebrate this feast, once known as the feast of the Three Kings. They would have welcomed a word of encouragement from Jesus. Little did they know, as they journeyed to the star, that the baby whose birth it proclaimed would indeed be the source of refreshment, the creator of the universe. The wise men of long ago were most likely burdened in their travels by supplies, tents, necessities and luxuries for the road. But perhaps the greatest burden was understanding why they began this extraordinary search in the first place. With only their studies and the light in the sky to guide them, they traveled in a kind of blind faith – confident that they must seek but unsure of what their seeking will bring. As we waver under the burdens of our busy lives, let's remember those desert wanderers from centuries ago. While we may know who waits for us under the star, we too are searching for something new. (Maria Rodgers O'Rourke)

DINING WITH DOROTHY – Join with your friends or make new ones at this luncheon program sponsored by the Shepherd's Center of Oakton-Vienna. This month you'll be dining at Noon on Monday, January 13 at Bazin's on Church, 111 Church St. NW in Vienna. To reserve your space contact event chair, Dorothy Flood, dflood1706@gmail.com.

WHAT'S AHEAD cont'd. – Here are brief descriptions of the various options for a senior living you may find helpful in planning for the future. The wide range of retirement living options begins with life plan communities, also known as continuing care retirement communities (CCRCs.) These communities generally feature care options ranging from independent living to long-term nursing care on one campus. Life Plan Communities usually appeal to active, healthy older adults. Residents can transfer to higher levels of care in the community as needed. Life plan communities also offer a wide array of amenities and activities.

In addition to monthly fees, these communities usually require payment of a one-time fee called an entrance fee. The entrance fee depends on the level of care selected at the time of entry, type of housing unit, and the agreement type. Some agreements allow for all or part of the entrance fee to be refunded if the resident moves or passes away. For seniors who want to leave the burdens of home maintenance behind, independent living communities may be the ideal option. In addition to property upkeep, these also generally offer 24-hour security and activities to keep residents engaged. Most independent living communities are rental properties, although some do offer the option for residents to purchase units. Independent living communities generally do not offer health care services. However, some communities are affiliated with health care facilities that can provide such care when it is needed. Many residents also purchase home health care services from outside providers as their care needs increase.

Individuals who need daily assistance may want to consider an assisted living community. These communities also offer activity programs to fit the interests of every resident. Assisted living communities offer standard services including daily meals, supervision, security, and help with the activities of daily living (ADLs.) These services can include assistance with bathing, dressing, and toileting. Some communities also offer help with medication management, transportation services and coordination of medical health and dental treatments. Many assisted living communities to have special units for individuals with memory impairments, including Alzheimer's and other dementias.

Finally, whether for short-term rehabilitation or a long-term medical stay, nursing and rehabilitation centers are a vital senior living option. These centers are equipped to help residents heal and/or maintain their best quality of life and often feature a full schedule of activities. Professional staff members directed by a physician deliver care. Nursing and rehabilitation centers serve as permanent residences for individuals who are too sick or frail to live at home. They are also ideal for short term stays for individuals who are recovering after surgery or an illness.

When researching potential communities, retirees should be sure to ask about admission and discharge criteria, entrance and monthly fees, and amenities, activities and residence involvement. Specifically, prospective residents should feel confident that the community they are entering will be capable of accommodating their needs both now and in the future. It is always a good idea to ask for references and speak with current residents or family members about their experiences. Once they have narrowed their search down to a few places, potential residents should plan on-site visits with friends or relatives. Only by visiting a community in person can one get a true feel for the lifestyle residents to enjoy. (Spotlight on Senior Living)
