

STONYHURST

Foreign Language Assistant - Spanish

Stonyhurst College is the UK's leading co-educational Catholic boarding and day school. We provide an exceptional education in the Jesuit Tradition, preparing students for successful and fulfilling lives. Located in the picturesque Ribble Valley in Lancashire, in a setting steeped in history.

We are excited to announce a fantastic Foreign Language Assistant vacancy; this is a great opportunity for fluent Spanish speakers to add further capacity to our MFL department. The Foreign Language Assistant must offer Spanish and will be required to work with individuals and small groups of pupils, ensuring that they are exposed to a high quality of spoken and written language and additional classroom involvement. There will also be an opportunity for involvement in the pastoral life of the Boarding Houses for the right candidate.

The successful candidate will join us from September and will work approx. 12-15 hours per week in the MFL department. Accommodation is provided alongside an attractive benefits package including; meals on duty, pension scheme, free swimming and discounted gym membership.
