2020

Purchase, read, annotate, and enjoy F. Scott Fitzgerald's collection of short stories, Flappers and Philosophers (Knopf Doubleday Publishing Group: Vintage Classics Series, ISBN: 9780307474520).

The book is readily available on Amazon, Barnes & Noble, and other online and in-store locations. You are responsible for purchasing this book on your own.

Other texts will be distributed to you throughout the school year.

Please finish reading all eight stories in Flappers and Philosophers before the opening of the 2020 – 2021 school year, and please bring the book with you to class on the first day of school in September. We will begin discussing it immediately. Additionally, at least one writing assignment will occur in response to the stories in the first week of school.
