

Working Papers for FWHS Students

In order to receive the working papers, a company must issue a promise of employment letter to the student. The letter should be on company letterhead and describe the duties, hours and wage for the student. The letter should list the student by name and be signed by a manager. this can be scanned and emailed to me.

We can then issue the certificate of age paperwork via email.

Gail Aiello
gaiello@fairfieldschools.org