Dear Community Members,

Thank you for approving both referendum questions in the November 4, 2014 General Election! Voters in the St. Anthony-New Brighton School District approved both referendum questions and the School Board certified the election results at its meeting on November 12, 2014.

We are grateful for continued community support as it allows our schools to remain focused on our mission: to educate, prepare, and inspire a community of lifelong learners in our small, caring environment.

Question 1: Operating Levy

Voter approval of Question 1—Operating Levy—renewed and increased the District's current operating levy, which generates $1.8 million per year. Increases to the operating levy will generate an additional $3.1 million for our schools over the next 10 years.

Question 2: Capital Projects Levy for Curriculum and Technology

Voter approval of Question 2—Capital Projects Levy—will generate $450,000 in new funding each year for curriculum and technology. This levy provides a dedicated source of funding for curriculum and technology in our classrooms and schools.

Our community has a tradition of strong schools and our residents are proud of our small school district. Each week, we meet new families who moved into our community because of our schools. On behalf of the 1780 students at Wilshire Park Elementary School, St. Anthony Middle School, and St. Anthony Village High School, thank you for taking the time to learn about the referendum questions and the importance of those questions to our schools.

Sincerely,

*Bob Laney, Superintendent, and School Board members Leah Slye, Chair;
Barry Kinsey, Laura Oksnevad, Andrea Scamehorn, Don Siggelkow, and Mike Volna*

St. Anthony Village High School students in Ms. Bodurtha's Honors Chemistry invited preschoolers from St. Anthony Community Services to join them in class.

Together, the young learners and high school students read a story, experimented with, and learned how household products react when combined.

School Board Approves Financial Audit

St. Anthony–New Brighton School District received a clean, unqualified audit of financial operations for the 2013-14 school year. An unqualified rating is the highest possible opinion. Andrew Berg, CPA from certified public accounting firm Abdo, Eick & Meyers, presented the results at the Board meeting on December 2. The annual financial audit found the district to be in compliance with all state and federal regulations. The audit also confirmed total revenues in the general fund within 0.5% of the revenue budget and total expenditures within 0.4% of the expenditure budget. Berg indicated the District has completed the necessary steps and will be eligible to receive the Association of School Business Official's (ASBO) Certificate of Excellence.

The unassigned fund balance in the general fund ended the year at 8.1% of total general fund expenditures – within the fund balance range set by the school board of between 8% and 10%. An adequate fund balance provides the district with protection against unanticipated expenditures. In recent years, it has also provided the district with adequate cash flow when the Legislature shifted aid payments to school districts.

Board Certifies Final 2014 Pay 2015 Levy

The School Board certified a final levy of $6,171,124 for the 2015-2016 school year at their meeting on December 2. The 2015-16 levy is a 10.69% increase over the prior year. This increase is attributed to the passage of the operating referendum and capital project levies, increase in resident student count, and decrease in open enrollment students as a percentage of total enrollment.

The School Board is committed to keeping property taxes as stable as possible while maintaining adequate funding for student learning and technology and curriculum maintenance. On the proposed 2015 tax statement, property owners most likely saw an increase in school taxes. Passage of the operating levy and capital projects levy, as well as an overall referendum market value increase of 7.31% in our taxing district, are the main reasons for any increase compared to the 2014 tax statements.

On the property tax statement, school taxes are listed as voter approved and other local levies. The total certified levy for 2014 Pay 2015 is $6,171,123.85 – 59% of the total is classified as voter approved, and the remaining 41% is non-voter approved. Non voter approved levies are items such as operating capital and safe schools levies – items that are integral to daily operations of the district.

TIES Education Technology Conference.*

Two Teachers Recognized as TIES Exceptional Teachers

Lisa Cartwright, STEM Specialist at Wilshire Park Elementary School, and Amber Potts, Physical Education teacher at St. Anthony Middle School, were honored with the 2014 TIES Exceptional Teacher award. Cartwright and Potts are two of 91 teachers from Minnesota who were recognized at the Education Technology Conference on December 9, 2014. Selected by superintendents, teachers who receive the TIES Exceptional Teacher award model best practices in their classroom and engage students in learning with technology.

Lisa Cartwright, a former 2nd and 3rd grade teacher at Wilshire Park, transitioned to the position of STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, and Math) Specialist in August 2014. "Ms. Cartwright has always shown a passion for integrating technology into her classroom and now impacts all students at Wilshire Park in her role as the STEM specialist," shared Principal Kari Page. Cartwright incorporates science, engineering, and technology standards into her teaching in creative and exciting ways. Students are challenged to explore new ideas and explain their thinking as they study topics in STEM. Students are also learning to code and transfer their knowledge from science explorations to presentations using technology. Cartwright serves on several building and district committees that help foster technology integration within the school district and helps Wilshire Park staff find ways to incorporate iPads into their daily routines and be more efficient in their work with students.

Amber Potts is a Physical Education (PE) teacher at St. Anthony Middle School. "Ms. Potts is dedicated to creating a quality physical education curriculum for all students and believes that the use of technology in PE serves as the starting point of learning to use technology for health and fitness purposes in the future," shared Dr. Renee Corneille, Principal at St. Anthony Middle School. Potts utilizes the technology of the Polar Gofit system to allow the students to take an innovative approach in fulfilling the characteristics of a quality fitness education program along with improving the physical well being of students. The Polar Gofit system allows students to assess their own level of physical exertion with real-time data. This innovative system also help students make a personal connection with the content as the goals, assessment criteria and activities are designed based on what is best for each student's current physical state. Through the use of the Polar Gofit system, Potts has led an innovative shift in physical education pedagogy from acquiring specific sport skills to learning and understanding how to have a healthy body.

Wilshire Park Teacher Receives Innovative Educator Award

Ann Shaw, teacher at Wilshire Park Elementary School, is the 2014 recipient of the 3M Innovative Economic Educator Award. The Minnesota Council on Economic Education's (MCEE) 3M Innovative Economic Educator Award recognizes teachers who create and implement innovative learning activities at the elementary and secondary grade levels. Shaw was awarded first place in the elementary category.

Shaw's activity, Getting the Goods on Good Pizza, introduces kindergarten students to the economic concepts of goods and services by adapting a popular children's fable, The Little Red Hen (Makes a Pizza). The kindergarten students identify goods and services in the story and play two games involving pizzas to reinforce the concepts. Shaw was formally recognized at MCEE's 2014 EconFest on October 23, 2014 and at the School Board meeting on November 12, 2014.

Carl Nowlin, third grade teacher at Wilshire Park, received the 3M Innovative Economic Educator Award in 2013. Nowlin was also awarded first place in the elementary category for his learning activity.

Authentic Learning, Caring Environment

St. Anthony Middle School is committed to authentic learning in a caring environment where all are expected to learn and contribute. In the Spring of 2014, St. Anthony Middle School sent a survey to parents to learn if they were aware of the vision and mission. From the survey, staff at SAMS learned that some parents were familiar with the vision-to be a school committed to authentic learning in a caring environment-and mission-all will learn and contribute-while others were not. St. Anthony Middle School developed a goal to use technology to help connect with all parents. Principal Dr. Corneille replaced her weekly email announcements with a blog. Parents can subscribe to and read posts by Dr. Corneille at: www.rscoreille.com.

SAMS is dedicated to creating a school committed to having authentic learning in a caring environment. As parents and community members, be committed to this vision with us. Trust that we know your child can learn and contribute.

Excerpt of a blog post by Dr. Renee Corneille, St. Anthony Middle School (SAMS) Principal

Using Technology to Focus on Teaching

The staff at St. Anthony Middle School developed technology goals connected to the vision—to be a school committed to authentic learning in a caring environment—and designed to help teachers continue the important work they do. Staff will work collaboratively to implement technology as an efficient tool to support three aspects of authentic learning: give timely and efficient feedback, support students to monitor their own learning, and provide culturally-relevant pedagogy (the method and practice of teaching). The emphasis remains on strong, effective instruction rather than technology tools. St. Anthony Middle School recognizes that good instruction can be enhanced with the implementation of technology, but technology will never replace good instruction.

One of the technology initiatives at St. Anthony Middle School is the use of Google Applications for Education, tools for classroom collaboration. Staff and students are exploring ways in which Google Classroom might support learning and teaching in classrooms. Designed to help create and collect assignments paperlessly, Google Classroom was developed to help teachers save time, keep classes organized and improve feedback with students.

Congratulations to Amber Potts, St. Anthony Middle School's Physical Education teacher. Potts was recognized as a 2014 TIES Exceptional Teacher for modeling best practices and engaging students in learning with technology.

Erin Mohr, 7th grade Language Arts teacher, explained, "In my previous district, we were using google docs as a way to get kids to record their stories." When she transitioned to St. Anthony Middle School in the fall, she taught students how to log in and utilize the applications. "It hasn't replaced any of the teaching I do." Instead of photocopying and distributing assignments, Mohr posts assignments on Google Classroom, students log on with a username and password, access their assignment, then complete and submit it from any computer. Mohr can also determine when the document was most recently updated, "It allows me to catch kids before they fall too far behind on assignments."

Kirsten Donohue, 7th grade Social Studies teacher, is also using Google classroom and explained how students could submit a project. "Students could submit the project online or in person and I could give instant feedback and share my private comments in their document." In the past, while class time was taken up by distributing and collecting assignments, kids now have options for submitting projects and teachers have more ways to give feedback. Donohue also assigned the class a group project. Google classroom allowed students to work on a group project at the same time and collaborate on their presentation without being in the same location.

Students Collect Over 2000 Pounds of Food

Wilshire Park Elementary School hosted its sixth annual food drive in November and raised more than $1,400 and donated more than 2,000 pounds of food to Second Harvest Heartland. Wilshire Park's event has remained the largest, school-based food drive for Second Harvest Heartland.

Mr. Peterson's 4th grade class donated 375 food items and won the privilege of loading the truck on November 12, 2014. Mr. Truso's 2nd grade class and Ms. Johnson's 1st grade class collected 285 and 235 food items, respectively.

Wilshire Park has a "Buddy Bench" on the school playground thanks to a former student. James Kerber, a junior at St. Anthony Village High School, collected funds, ordered and installed the Buddy Bench to achieve his Eagle Scout award. Designed as a place for kids to gather, the purpose of a Buddy Bench is to help kids find a group to play with at recess.

James Kerber

Congratulations to Lisa Cartwright, Wilshire Park's STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, and Math) Specialist. Cartwright was recognized as a 2014 TIES Exceptional Teacher for modeling best practices and engaging students in learning with technology.

International Walk/Bike to School Day on Wednesday, October 8

More than 80 children walked or biked to Wilshire Park Elementary School on October 8, 2014. For many, it was their first time walking or biking to school. Parents and children walked or biked to school and a "Walking Bus" started with children who attend the before school programs at St. Anthony Community Services or Nativity and continued on a route to school with adult "drivers" walking with students. The Wilshire Park panda mascot and HCMC's Bernie the Rescue Dog also walked with the group and greeted children upon arrival at school. St. Anthony Police Officer Mosby and resident Julie Philbrook, Trauma Prevention Specialist at Hennepin County Medical Center, spent the day talking about safe walking to grades K-5. Special thanks to St. Anthony Police and Fire Departments, HCMS Ambulance Service, volunteers from FedEx, and parent volunteers for helping with the event.
