

The Galloway Parents Association strives to promote a close relationship among parents, students, faculty, and administrators. One way Galloway parents can support the Parents Association is to enroll in the charitable Rewards Programs found below.

- Amazon (through AmazonSmile)
- Box Tops for Education
- Fresh Harvest – a community supported agriculture organization (CSA) that delivers organic food to your door
- Kroger
- Publix Supermarkets

Funds raised via the Rewards Programs supports services, events, and activities that are sponsored and coordinated by the Parents Association. These events and activities encourage community spirit, promote understanding of the Galloway philosophy, and enrich the educational and social development of our students.

Enrollment instructions for each program are included on the following flyers. If you have any questions, please email Michael Lipsey and Aminata Solammon at rewards@gallowayschool.org.

With deepest thanks for your support,
