Parish Events & Updates

The Women of Our Lady of Good Counsel installed their newly elected Executive Board Members for 2020 - 2021 on Saturday, July 11th with Fr. William Metzger officiating. We gathered together to give thanks for the past year's activities of the Women of OLGC and to ask the Lord to walk with all of us as Catholic women dedicated to maintaining the mission of Our Lady of Good Counsel parish, to instill in each of us a deep sense of humility, integrity, justice, patience, concern for other people, and to continue to bless all our members. Executive Board Members are President, Jane Heishman; Vice President, Beverly MacDonald; Treasurer, Peggy Loudin; Recording Secretary, Marian Chirichella. For more information, contact olgswomen2019@gmail.com. More information on events and board members/program chairs will be coming soon.

Congratulations! Over the past couple of weeks, we welcomed fully Peter Brigham and Mike Tsai into the Catholic Church through the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist. May the Holy Spirit continue to lead them ever closer into the arms of Jesus. We wish Peter and Mike the very best as they continue their lives in Christ!

Donate for SOME - Help for Minutes a Month Tired of being bored at home? For just a few minutes a month you can improve the lives of the poorest in our local community. Volunteer to help the OLGC Women's Club provide one meal a month for SOME. So Other's Might Eat is a DC charity which provides meals, services, and training for the homeless. As a volunteer, you would bring a food item to the church -- no meal prep or cooking involved. Contact annasomers1@gmail.com or 703.577.7414.

RCIA Sponsors Needed: Ever thought about journeying with someone in their faith? Now could be your time! We have two gentlemen in RCIA, preparing to receive their sacraments in the Catholic Church and in need of sponsors. It would be great if we could find two gentlemen in our community who would be willing to accompany these two in RCIA. Summer responsibilities would include checking in once a week with your catechumen (one who is preparing for baptism). Fall-Spring responsibilities would include Wednesday night RCIA sessions, either in person or via zoom depending on COVID status. For more information or to sign up, contact Amy W. de Bernardo at dre@olgcv.org or 701.896.7414. Thank you!

Catechists Needed for CCF! We are still in need of volunteers for this year's CCF program! If you'd like to volunteer to teach the children, serve as a hall monitor, or if you are a nurse we would love to have your help! Please contact Amy MacKinnon, CCF Coordinator at ccfcoordinator@olcva.org or call: 703-896-7426 (CCF office Hours are currently 9-3, M-F)

MY WORLD DURING THE PANDEMIC – It's been almost 4 months since our lives were changed because of COVID-19. There are so many stories to tell! I've been listening to my friends' tales and sharing my own experiences here in my independent living residence. It's been such an unusual time, and I'd like to tell you some of what it's been like.

Early on, our campus was on a limited lockdown, which took on a different look as the virus landscape changed. All activities were canceled, and all public gathering places were closed, such as the dining rooms, theatres, pools, fitness centers, banks, and hair salons. Our meals, newspapers, mail, packages, flowers, prescriptions and groceries were delivered to our door by staff members. The doors to all the residence buildings were locked from the outside – we have a key that will open them. We were asked to stay in our apartments and to go out for only short periods for exercise and fresh air. From the beginning we were permitted to leave for essential needs.

As the virus worsened, everyone coming through the gate was scanned for temperatures and asked a series of questions. If we were not feeling well, a member of the medical staff would come to our apartment to evaluate us. Hand railings, door handles, and elevator panels were sanitized every four hours.

Via our in-house television station, we received daily briefings advising us of changes in various protocols and the numbers of residents who had come down with the virus (there were 3.) It was amazing to watch how efficiently and effectively various departments pivoted so quickly to accommodate so many needs. As the sign in front of the gate proclaims, "Heroes Work Here!" The Resident Life staff did so many things to help keep up our spirits.

Recently we've been slowly phasing in the opening of some areas of our campus, with restrictions, and continue to wear masks and practice social distancing whenever we're out of our apartments, even outdoors. Next week I'll share with you how we managed to not only survive but to thrive through these months of self-isolation!

Cita de la semana: "Cuando descubramos que hemos despertado a la ira, debemos clamar la ayuda de Dios como los apóstoles cuando fueron sacudidos por el viento y la tormenta en las aguas. Él ordenará que cesen tus pasiones y vendrá una gran calma". ~ San Francisco de Sales
