Security Officer Vacancy – Day Shift

We are looking to appoint a Security Officer to join our day team. This role is key to ensuring the security of the campus and community. Experience of a previous role is desirable but not essential as full training will be provided.

You should have a calm and polite manner, with the ability to develop positive and professional relationships at all levels. An understanding of confidentiality is essential, along with a flexible and adaptable approach to the role. Strong communication skills and the ability to work as part of a team are also important. Good IT knowledge and a full driving licence are also essential.

This is a full time post based on an average of 33.5 hours per week

Four on, four off, four on, eight off, 12 hour shift pattern.

6.00am - 6.00pm.

The role attracts a basic salary of £17,577 plus there is an additional 16 days holiday cover with a value of £1,900 per annum. Further hours are also available.

What's in it for you?

In return, we can offer;

- An interesting and varied role within a unique setting
- Opportunities for training and professional development as appropriate
- Meals are provided free of charge whilst on shift
- Swimming pool access, free of charge
- Discounted membership to the health and fitness facilities
- Fee remission
- Opportunity to join the National Pension Trust scheme
