

Freshmen Orientation Schedule - Monday, Aug. 17 and Tuesday, Aug. 18

Monday, Aug. 17 - Freshmen in advisories Chase, Lanfranconi, Mizzell, Perrella, and all transfers

Tuesday, Aug. 18 - Freshmen in advisories Rodriguez, D., Rodriguez, R., Van Pelt, and Wynn

Attire - Students may wear jeans or school skort, blue polo, and closed-toe shoes. Each student must wear her mask for the duration of orientation.

Schedule:

7:30 - 8:00 - Freshmen arrive at the Brady Center and are greeted by Student Council.

8:00 - Introduction by Mrs. Nitchals and Student Council and Freshmen advisors introduction

8:20 - Small group activities in the Brady Center with Student Council

9:00 - Return to chairs for snack, traditional orientation dances, and Q&A panel

10:15 - Letters to Self, vintage t-shirt distribution, and closing remarks by Student Council and Mrs. Krukar

11:00 - 1:30 - Freshmen will run through their daily schedules to meet teachers and locate classrooms. Student Council will be in the hallways to assist freshmen. The rotation will start and end with Advisory so students can continue to build relationships with advisors.

-- Students will need to bring iPads and bookbags for the day so teachers have the opportunity for students to login to Veracross and familiarize with class pages and distribute supplies/books.

 Transfer students will have one-on-one time with Council members to walk through their schedules and locate classrooms, meet advisors, and possibly meet subject teachers.*

Advisors will first help students find their schedules on Veracross, then in the second advisory meeting, they will be able to answer any last-minute questions or direct the student where to go to find an answer.*

Fine arts teachers will be located in the common areas to eliminate needing to cross the bridge. Performing arts will be on the second floor, and visual arts will be on the third and fourth.*
