Alfred E. Schindler

Whereas, Alfred E. Schindler was a resident of Ellington for over 60 years, where with his wife Shirley, he raised his children, Judy and Debbie; and

Whereas, Alfred E. Schindler served Ellington with distinction as a dedicated, professional land surveyor for over 55 years, earning the first Distinguished Surveyor Award from the Connecticut Association of Land Surveyors; and

Whereas, Alfred E. Schindler has been a great contributor to the history of Ellington through his comprehensive mapping, working intensively with Mark Hoffman and Dorothy B. Cohen to produce the original proprietors map of Ellington; and

Whereas, Alfred E. Schindler shared his knowledge as author of the book "Surveying - The World's Second Oldest Profession?"

Whereas, Alfred E. Schindler has mentored many young individuals with interest in his field and has a legacy that will carry on for many years to come; and

Now, Therefore, I, Lori L. Spielman, First Selectman of the Town of Ellington, Connecticut, on behalf of all its citizens, and by order of the Board of Selectmen, do hereby induct Alfred E. Schindler to the Ellington Wall of Honor in recognition of his life of service to his profession and to his community.

In Witness Whereof, I hereunto set my hand and cause the Seal of the Town of Ellington to be affixed this 10th day of September 2016.
