On June 14, the Wilshire Boulevard Temple softball team, created in 2012 under the guidance of Rabbi Eshel, won its first-ever Synagogue Softball League Championship, defeating local rival Temple Israel of Hollywood (TIOH), 9-5, for the B Division crown. The Synagogue Softball League, which was formed in the mid-1990s, houses five divisions and represents 34 temples in Los Angeles and the San Fernando Valley.

Wilshire Boulevard Temple’s softball team had a losing record heading into the final stretch of the season, yet controlled overall run advantages over its opponents—reflecting the team’s decisive wins and heartbreakingly close losses. With two games remaining in the season, the team was sixth in the B Division standings but earned a spot in the four-team playoff by winning its last two games and benefiting from key losses by the fourth- and fifth-place teams. In the playoff, Wilshire Boulevard Temple crushed top-seeded Valley Beth Shalom, 11-3, before taking home the crown over TIOH.

“I am very proud of our squad,” said congregant Stephen Matloff, who formed and manages the team. “Every single guy contributed meaningfully throughout the season, especially during our four-game winning streak to end the year.” That late streak included an impressive 40-9 run differential in the team’s last three games against higher-seeded teams, and pushed the team’s overall record to 8-7-1. In addition to Matloff, Wilshire Boulevard Temple’s roster includes Jeffrey Baum, Brent DuFine, Adam Feldman, David Fishman, Matt Gershman, Jake Glucksman, Jason Head, Mark Littlestone, Dwayne Love, Willie Nishizawa, James Prince, Corey Rogers, Jeff Schwartz, Adam Silverstein, Ari Wiess, and Andrew Wintner.

If you are interested in joining the Temple’s softball team, or creating a second team, please email wbtsoftball@gmail.com. If you would like to help build a Temple intramural league for other sports (using our phenomenal gym at the Irmas Campus and our new world-class rooftop sports complex at the Glazer Campus), please contact Jodi Berman, Director of Engagement and Leadership, at jberman@wbtla.org.
Training is available, as needed, for these and other ways to serve. If you are interested, please contact Phil Wallace at pwallace@wbtla.org or (424) 208-8932.

Universal Love Languages
Parashat Va‘etchanan (Deuteronomy 3:23-7:11)

In parashat Va‘etchanan, Moses holds his first marriage counseling session between God and the people of Israel: “Hear Israel, Adonai is our God, Adonai is One. Love God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your might.” According to acclaimed author and national relationship counselor Dr. Gary Chapman, there are five universal love languages through which people communicate how they feel loved: words of affirmation, physical touch, receiving gifts, quality time, and acts of service. Amazingly, the Torah teaches us that the way to love God involves the last two of Dr. Chapman’s five universal love languages—quality time and acts of service. Dr. Chapman rediscovered and systematized something our ancestors knew intuitively long ago.

Quality time refers to giving attention to God’s words “when you lie down and rise up, at home and on your way.” And an act of service refers to taking the time to “teach [God’s words] diligently to your children and post them as a sign upon your doorposts, arms, eyes, and gates.” These are the ways God wants us to express our love for God.

Of course we join our ancestors in having our own ways in which we want God to express love for us, and thankfully, God understands how to speak our love language—“I am the Lord YOUR God, who brought YOU out of Egypt. I will never let YOU fail or perish.”

In the first week of this month, the Torah reminds us that there are many ways for us to love God and many ways for God to love us and, most importantly, that we love each other in different ways, yet all of them profound and eternal.

Adult Opportunities

Become a “Chaver” and Join Our Caring Community

We all enjoy the times of celebration in our lives but also must endure life’s difficult challenges. During these periods, it’s nice to receive support from friends and family as well as from our Temple community. Would you like to be on the giving end of this caring community? We excitedly invite you to become a “Chaver” and help support fellow congregants in both good times and bad. Most of the activities allow you to be on a “call list,” which means you will be able to participate when you have the time and inclination. Here are some of the ways you can serve:

• Deliver Shabbat bags to fellow congregants who are facing challenges or who are recently home following hospital stays
• Make weekly phone calls to wish our elderly congregants Shabbat shalom
• Deliver bags for the High Holy Days to congregants who have lost a family member in the last year
• Be in touch with families who have kids in college to help send High Holy Day and Passover care packages
• Serve on a “shivah” committee and help grieving families organize their post-funeral shivahs
• Deliver “Welcome to the World” bags for families who have just had a baby

Sushi and Schmoozing

Six years ago they stood together on the bimah in the Marcia Israel Chapel/Auditorium, sang “Hashkiveinu,” received a blessing from Rabbi Leder, and graduated from Brawerman Elementary School. On June 8 of this year, as new high school graduates the Brawerman Class of 2009 attended their first official alumni reunion event, which was held at the Irmas Campus, where they enjoyed sushi and sharing memories.

Nadine Breuer, Brawerman Head of School, recalled some of her memorable experiences with members of this extraordinary group and expressed her pride in their accomplishments. She told them how wonderful it was to see the amazing, kind, and “menshy” people they have become, and she wished them all the best of luck on the next steps in their educational journeys.

Graduate Emily Lurie, who will be attending the University of Pennsylvania in the fall, expressed what many were feeling when she remarked, “It is so great to catch up with classmates who I haven’t seen in six years and hear about their plans for the future.”

We encourage all of our alumni (there are now 10 years of graduates!) to stay in touch and remember that they will always be part of the Brawerman family.

Glazer and Mann Early Childhood Centers

A Very Special Play Date

In June the Early Childhood Centers and our amazing Parent Association hosted their first annual play date for new and incoming children for both the Glazer and Irmas Campuses. The event provided a wonderful opportunity for families to meet and feel part of our school and temple community before the start of the school year in September.

New parents had a chance to get reacquainted with the directors and to begin friendships with other new as well as returning parents.

The children participated in a variety of activities, including building with large, soft blocks from Imagination Playground (designed to encourage learning, social development, and movement); story time; gardening with our horticultural specialist, Joan Borgman; and singing along with our music teachers, Jen Shankman and Jason Mesches.

The big hit for the children was their soapy playtime with Bubblemania, the creative bubble party company. It was a wonderful morning for all and an incredibly successful inaugural event. We are so excited to meet again when school starts in September!

FREE HIGH HOLY DAY CHILD CARE

This year we are offering free High Holy Day child care services for newborn babies through ages five years old on the mornings of Rosh HaShanah and Yom Kippur, September 14 and 23 respectively, from 8:30 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. Please RSVP by September 3 to Jen Shankman at jshankman@wbtla.org.
Come Ride with Us!

We’re gearing up for the Jewish Federation’s Tour de Summer Camps cycling event this fall, riding to raise funds for camp scholarships. The event helps send children to Jewish summer camp, where they can build lifelong connections to Jewish identity and values. This is something the two of us know a great deal about: we met at Wilshire Boulevard Temple’s own Camp Hess Kramer in 1990, and we ride together in celebration of our Leadership year, wedding anniversary, and family birthdays.

It was an amazing experience when we participated in the event in 2013—reliving summer camp memories with more than five hundred rowdy riders from Jewish sleep-away camps from across the country and throughout Los Angeles. If you’re looking for a new physical challenge, have fond summer camp memories you’d like to celebrate, or just love to cycle along a panoramic course, sign up and ride with us! Four routes will be offered this year, including an 18-, 36-, 62-, and 100-mile course, making it a fun activity for riders of a wide range of cycling ability.

Team WBT Camps (and our boisterous team captain Rabbi Eshel) provide cyclists with support: a training schedule to get you ready, a practice ride six weeks prior to the event, and a team jersey.

Life is a beautiful ride.

Carolyn and Craig Enenstein
Team WBT Camps Event Chairs

The third-annual Tour de Summer Camps, on Sunday, October 25, 2015, will start at Camp Alonin on the Brandeis-Bardin Campus of the American Jewish University in Simi Valley. To sign up for the Wilshire Boulevard Temple Camps team, go to tourdesummercamps.org.

Religious School

Welcome-Back Plans

We are thrilled to welcome you back to Religious School next month! If you have not enrolled your children in our exciting 2015–16 program, please go online today and do so. As we organize classes, our goal is to give students the schedules they need and honor friend requests whenever possible. Visit wbtl.org/rsregistration2015 to enroll.

Please join us for our first Sunday of Religious School on September 20. Welcome breakfast begins at 8:30 a.m. followed by class from 9 a.m. to noon. Parents will have the opportunity to meet with teachers from 9:30 to 10 a.m.

The first Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons of Religious School, September 29 and 30 at Irmas, start at 4 p.m. The first Wednesday Night Program for our high school students (in Grades 9–12) is September 30 from 6 to 8 p.m. at Irmas.

Some of the highlights we’ve been working on this summer include:

- Hineini, our new middle school program for Grades 6–8
  a. Grade 8 Leadership Trip to Arizona, February 12–16, 2016
  b. Grade 8 ‘Twinning Program’ Trip to Israel, December, 2015
- Youth Groups
  a. WBTY (Grades 9–12)
  b. Jr. WBTY (Grades 6–8)
  c. WBTY Deux (Grades 3–5)
- Confirmation for students in Grade 10
- Beit Midrash (at the Glazer Campus for Grades 8–12)
- Wednesday Night Program (at the Irmas Campus for Grades 9–12)
- Our new RScoop, a monthly newsletter for Religious School families

Also, mark your calendars for the amazing Religious School retreat at Camp Hess Kramer for students in Grades 3-12 on the weekend of November 6-8. Register online today!
Summer Services Kicked Off in Style

On June 5, Wilshire Boulevard Temple kicked off its outdoor summer services with a combined Holy-wood Bowl Soul Sounds/Shabbat Aglow event on the Irmas Campus field. Families loved their alfresco picnic while children relished playtime with the Brawerman coaches. Finally, Cantors Don Gurney, Seth Ettinger, and song leader Jason Mesches led musicians in a melodious Shabbat service enjoyed by all.
ADULT B’NEI MITZVAH ●
Saturday, August 1  ●  4:00 p.m.
For this momentous occasion, in a special Shabbat minchah service, six women will fulfill their lifelong dream and ascend the bimah to become b’not mitzvah.

WILLOW HELENA BATTISTA

August 1, 2015
Willow is a graduate of Brawerman Elementary School at Wilshire Boulevard Temple.
Willow is the daughter of Marni and Robert Battista; the stepdaughter of Jeremy Crane and Amada Battista; the granddaughter of Georgeanne and Donald Oshman.

Family Welcomers: Kloey and Rayna Battista, sisters.

Tikkun Olam Project: Willow raised money for “Girl Power Project,” a girls’ empowerment program in rural Uganda. Willow traveled with her mother, sister, and cousin to Uganda to work with the girls in the program, and see an impact firsthand.

SOPHIE ROSE BERMAN

August 15, 2015
Sophie is the daughter of Lori and Bruce Berman; the granddaughter of Judy and Al Michaels; Ethel and Robert Kanne.

Family Welcomers: Joshua and Adam Berman, brothers.

Tikkun Olam Project: Sophie volunteered with Koreh L.A. and worked to improve the reading skills of a student in Grade 2 at Castle Heights Elementary School.

LILY ALEXANDER BRAGIN

August 22, 2015
Lily is the daughter of Julie Alexander and Stephen Bragin; the granddaughter of Marion Alexander and the late Donald Alexander; the late Irving and Beatrice Bragin.

Family Welcome: Emily Bragin, sister.

Tikkun Olam Project: Lily collected items and helped prepare bags for the “My Stuff Bags Foundation,” which provides new belongings and comfort items to children who have been rescued from abusive and neglectful living situations.

HALLIE ROSE MCRAE

August 22, 2015
Hallie is the daughter of Amy and Kelly McRae; the granddaughter of Nancy Lord; Stanley and the late Jacqueline Lord; the late Rose and Hal McRae.

Family Welcomers: Jamie and Yaeli McRae, sisters; Harry Blumsack, brother; Jackie Blumsack, sister.

Tikkun Olam Project: Hallie volunteered at Pug Nation, a nonprofit organization that is dedicated to helping pugs find safe, loving homes. She helped put together treat and toy bags for the dogs that visited, and she also played with multiple pugs and helped in the efforts to get them adopted.

SARAH JASMINE DORN

August 22, 2015
Sarah is the daughter of Lisa Hoffman and Scott Dorn; the granddaughter of Carol and Clive Hoffman; Judy and Al Dorn.

Tikkun Olam Project: Sarah sponsored the organization Earth Justice. This organization defends people’s right to have a healthy environment; it uses the power of law to defend the ecosystems, which ties into her Torah portion, Shoftim.

ASHTON SPENCER YADEGAR

August 29, 2015
Ashton is the son of Nazila Pouratian Yadegar and Matin Yadegar; the grandson of David Yadegar and the late Madeleine Yadegar; Mahnaz and Massoud Pouratian.

Family Welcomers: Ella Yadegar, sister; Jordan Yadegar, brother.

Tikkun Olam Project: Ashton volunteered for the Neuromuscular Disease Foundation, assisting with clerical work and promoting its Patient Advocacy Meetings and Genetic Screening Events.

JOSIE ALLYN ENENSTEIN

August 29, 2015
Josie is the daughter of Carolyn and Craig Enenstein; the granddaughter of Phyllis Stone and the late Allen Stone; Debbie and Harry Enenstein.

Family Welcomer: Whitney Enenstein, sister.

Tikkun Olam Project: Josie organized a collection of soccer clothing and gear for the U.S. Soccer Foundation’s Passback® Program, which distributes soccer equipment to children in underserved communities. Josie hopes to help bring physical fitness, confidence, and the game of soccer to children who love the sport as much as she does.
