Northwest President

Dr. Michael J. Heindl

Dr. Michael J. Heindl begins his third year as Northwest's ninth president in fall of 2020. A community college graduate, Dr. Heindl has experience in a number of areas, including finance, technology, legal issues, human resources, emergency management, campus leadership, student services, workforce training and admissions. During his presidency, he has strengthened community partnerships, made strides in improving the organizational structure and culture of the college and led the creation and implementation of Northwest's new vision and strategic plan.
