Congratulations!

On July 25, Brothers Joseph 'JD' Macioce and Kyle Mena renewed their Promises and took the Brothers' Habit in a prayer service at Jeremy House.

They began their novitiate experience at the Regional Novitiate in Hyde Park, Chicago, Illinois on July 27.

Come and See Vocation Event

The Brothers' Region of North America is hosting a Virtual "Come and See/ Why Not Me" opportunity for young men who are thinking about the Brothers way of life as an option. Young men who are between the ages of 23-40 and are contemplating the possibility of teaching and living with the Brothers are invited to this event to dialogue with some of our younger Brothers from around the country.

Please encourage anyone you may know or your colleagues may know to this Vocations Event. Many thanks in promoting the Mission and specifically the role of the Brother in that mission with this event.

Celebration of Commitment Ceremony

On August 22, 2020, the Central Catholic High School Community (Pittsburgh) will livestream a special Commitment Ceremony. During this ceremony, Brother Eric Henderson will be recognized for his 60th year in religious life. In addition, Brother Steven Barbara will renew his annual vows.

There will also be two new men in the community: Michael Kimble beginning his Apostolic Postulancy and James Corcoran who will begin a year as Residential Contact.

Please join the Central Catholic High School Community for this joyous occasion! The link to attend virtually will be posted at www.fscdena.org.

LAST BUT NOT LEAST!

- Congratulations to Br. Paul Avvento renewed his vows on July 16, 2020 with a special mass in Rhode Island!
- Br. Michael Andrejko participated in the God's Adventure Awaits Summit August 1-2, 2020
- Br. Mark Brown will host a mini-retreat for contacts on August 10-11
- Check out a new video on vocations for parents: <https://youtu.be/RrNHNRoJiWg>
- If you have any questions, contact Br. Michael at andrejko@fscdena.org
- And most of all, thank you for your continued support!
