

Code of Conduct for Live Virtual Learning Sessions

The parent or legal guardian of (student's full legal name) hereby grants permission for him/her to participate in live virtual learning. Live Virtual Learning Sessions will be conducted to allow the sharing of both the student's and teacher's webcams.

In addition to the permission the parent or legal guardian hereby grants for live virtual learning, guardians and students must acknowledge the following before the Live Virtual Learning Session can be conducted:

- The student's workspace and the area where the camera will be positioned are free from distractions and anything that would not be considered appropriate for school.
- The student will follow all school rules during the session including following teacher directions, participating fully in learning, and demonstrating RAISE values.
- The parent/legal guardian and student understand that the live virtual learning session will only be used for student and teacher instructional purposes. Any discussions outside of the lesson will be addressed through email or a phone call at a later time.
- The parent/legal guardian and student understand that live virtual learning sessions can be canceled at any time if the student or the home learning environment of the student is deemed inappropriate for learning by the teacher.
  - The live virtual learning session will be recorded and be considered an education record.
