

The Association of Waldorf Schools of North America
Adopts the Following

Resolution Honoring Ronald Koetzsch

WHEREAS, Ronald Koetzsch served Waldorf education for twenty-nine years as the Editor in Chief of Renewal: A Journal for Waldorf Education.

WHEREAS, Ronald made Waldorf education visible to the world with literary grace, artistry, and endless care and devotion.

WHEREAS, Ronald provided education and insight to parents and teachers across the globe so that children would benefit from the wisdom of Waldorf pedagogy and the nurturing impulse of Anthroposophy.

WHEREAS, Ronald lives life with dignity, principle, and resolve, and has surrounded us all with humor, compassion, and love for humanity and the earth.

NOW THEREFORE, be it resolved that the Association of Waldorf Schools of North America honors Ronald Koetzsch for his tireless service to children, parents, teachers, and the Waldorf educational community at large.

The Board of Trustees extends its gratitude.

Adopted unanimously on this 1st day of June, 2020.

On behalf of the Board of Trustees of the Association of Waldorf Schools of North America
