

Middle Leaders JAWs

Dulwich College Seoul –21st & 22nd November 2014

This is an opportunity for Middle Leaders to come together to share best practice in leading learning.

During the JAWs there will be an opportunity to network with other FOBISIA Middle Leaders and to share effective practice through Job Alike Workshops.

The workshops on the agenda will be completed following input from the registered participants. All participants will be actively involved throughout the two days. Please indicate your areas of interest for discussion and presentation on the registration form.

Topics could include but not limited to:

- Student data and tracking
- Developing team members
- Child protection
- Delivering difficult messages
- Performance management
- Getting the most from CPD
- Assessment for Learning
- Looking for Learning

Cost:

KRW 50,000 to be payable at the JAWs (to cover workshop catering)

Optional Friday night dinner at local restaurant within walking distance of hotel.

Set menu price of KRW 40,000 tbc (plus drinks).

Times:

9.00am-4:00pm Friday (6:30 pm dinner)

9:00am-2pm Saturday

Hotel:

Seoul Palace Hotel

www.seoulpalace.co.kr/eng/

Hotel reservations and payments are the responsibility of each participant. The hotel is walking distance from the College. We will meet you at the hotel each morning.

Registration:

Please complete the registration form and email to Catherine.Taylor@dulwich-seoul.kr

Deadline for registration: Friday 24th October.

Any questions please direct to:

Catherine.Taylor@dulwich-seoul.kr

FOBISIA Job Alike Workshop (JAWs) "Job Alike Workshops are networking events where FOBISIA members gather to share good practice and co-construct new knowledge. The host school ensures all participants are actively involved in the planning of the agenda and are provided with opportunities to contribute. All sessions are led or facilitated by the participants and a continuing professional dialogue is encouraged. External providers and guest speakers should not be included in the programme."

FOBISIA CPD Handbook – September 2014

