

Garden International School

Bringing Out The Best In You Since 1951

FOBISIA EAL JAWS

Friday 15th and 16th Saturday January 2016
Garden International School, Kuala Lumpur

Objectives:

- ☐ Sharing best practice
- ☐ Reflection and evaluation of effective models of language learning
- ☐ Discussion of successful programmes towards fostering cultural inclusion in schools
- ☐ Connecting with other practitioners

Workshops

Presentations and workshops are welcomed on successful teaching and learning practice, feedback from action research and new language learning research, incorporating discussion and activities. Some initial ideas for workshops are listed below; however, we welcome other suggestions from participants:

- ☐ Assessment and Tracking Process
- ☐ Helping EAL Students Access the Curriculum
- ☐ Bilingualism and the role of mother tongue
- ☐ Effective models of collaboration
- ☐ Scaffolding and Differentiation for EAL Learners
- ☐ Technology and impact thereof
- ☐ Culture and Heritage of EAL Learners
- ☐ EAL Learner Autonomy
- ☐ Teacher Development
- ☐ Supporting EAL Parents

Registration Fee:

RM200 per delegate to cover transport, refreshments and lunch on both days.

Accommodation:

Our recommendation is The Boulevard St-Giles Premier Hotel, Mid Valley, which is about 10 mins from the school campus. Click here for more information on the The Boulevard St-Giles Premier Hotel, location and room rates.

Contacts us for further information

Jose Diez

Email: diez.j@gardenschool.edu.my

Tel: +603 6209 6888 ext 6804