

Secondary Student Support JAWS

14th and 15th October 2016

This JAWS will be a superb opportunity for practitioners from a multitude of settings to gather together, network, share and develop best practice in the field of supporting students both outside and within the curriculum.

We welcome applicants in any of the following roles:

- Emotional Counsellors,
- School Social Workers,
- Learning Support Teachers or assistants,
- Educational Psychologists,
- Learning Mentors,
- Pastoral Leaders,
- Anyone with an interest in developing their skills and experience in these areas.

Please note that this is not suitable for University Guidance Counselors.

The focus of the event will be;

- Counselling Theories and Therapies; broadening our support toolkit.
- Learning Needs in a Cultural Context, including the need for external collaboration.

We will also arrange a trip to a local beach to enjoy the wonderful heritage of Jeju, the jewel of Korea.

The cost of this JAWS, including the excursion, 2 lunches and refreshments will be USD$50.

For more information please contact Dan Furness, Head of Individual Needs dfurness@nlcsjeju.kr or Jason Adams, Learning Support Teacher jadams@nlcsjeju.kr

To register please contact Eva Gulian, Events Coordinator egulian@nlcsjeju.kr

The registration deadline is Friday 30th September 2016.

The choice of local hotels near the school is limited but our recommended hotel is the Jeju Aerospace Hotel (approx. USD$100 per night incl. breakfast). <https://ora.oraresort.com/eng/ARS> . We will be able to transfer you to and from this hotel and NLCS Jeju free of charge. Taxis to and from the airport are approximately USD$25 (30,000KWN)

Please do not book your flights or accommodation until the JAWS is confirmed and there are enough participants registered to proceed.
