

BISHN Geography JAWS Condensed Academic Schedule

Friday Sessions (subject to change based on areas of expertise of JAWS participants)
What's on your plate? Identifying aspects of teaching/learning/management/leadership that participants would like to personally develop during this CPD event
Teachmeet - pick and present to showcase from a theme of interest e.g. linking ToK into IB (or even KS3), making homework meaningful, flipped learning, Top 3 geography websites, use of ICT GIS to enhance T+L, cross-curricular projects - competitions (e.g. GIS Day, World's Largest Lesson), using local area / independent enquiry projects
Option Session 1a - IB Curriculum Changes - planning for next year - (this session depends on how much information is released by the IB by the time of the session) Option Session 1b - A-Level Syllabus Changes - planning ahead
Option Session 2a - SGQM - step by step through the process and outcomes Option Session 2b - Primary / Secondary links - ideas / strategies etc - What Primary do - how we can adapt
Option Session 3 - IBDP - Internal Assessment and Extended Essay - examples, marking, moderation
Option Session 4a Key Stage 3 - Assessment Techniques / Moving Away from Levels Option Session 4b - IGCSE - Paper 3 or Paper 4 - pros / cons - ideas for trips and coursework, constraints and opportunities
Reflection and Feedback (based on how today's session helped to 'reduce the amount on your plate')
Evening Social Location TBC
Saturday Session Cross-topic field-trip 'The Geography of Hanoi in 1 day' Using Hanoi as a case study to cover a range of topics covered in the KS3-5 Geography curricula - discursive, collaborative and exploratory. Evening Social Location TBC